African Musics in Context Solomon, Thomas,2015-12-12 Ethnomusicology deals with the study of the music of the world The field is interdisciplinary and ethnomusicologists draw on theory and method from folklore cultural anthropology historical musicology literature cultural studies and media studies among other disciplines So when ethnomusicologists met at Makerere University s symposium on ethnomusicology in October 2011 the issues dealt with spanned a wide spectrum of concerns which can be grouped under three major categories Institutions culture and identity African Musics in Context discusses the place of performing arts in Ugandan society archiving music and music sources performing archival music performing health and religious issues in music music and identity in East Africa as well music in motion which tackles how identity shifts when people move from one place to another All these are key aspects of our day to day lives and they are the themes that colour the music we listen to This book follows up on and extends work in an earlier volume Nannyonga Tamusuza and Solomon 2012 which included papers from the first symposium in the series While this book focuses primarily on music and music research in Uganda the chapters by the contributors from Tanzania South Africa and Norway demonstrate the importance of scholarly and professional networks that connect the different countries of the African continent with each other and with the larger international scholarly community If the published proceedings from the first symposium mentioned above represented a first in the history of ethnomusicological publishing in Uganda this second book in the series shows that professionalised ethnomusicology in Uganda continues to gain ground and make contributions to music research in Uganda Africa and the global ethnomusicological community The chapters collected here show that ethnomusicology in Uganda has a healthy institutional basis and promises to continue to make contributions that are relevant locally regionally and internationally

Ethnomusicology in East Africa Sylvia A. Nannyonga-Tamusuza,Thomas Solomon,2012 Ethnomusicology in East Africa brings together thinkers and artists from Uganda East Africa and further afield to discuss an area of vital importance to Africans as a people The book presents selected papers from the First International Symposium on Ethnomusicology in Uganda held at Makerere University in Kampala on 23-25 November 2009 and represents an important step in the continued professionalisation of ethnomusicology in Uganda. It presents new work by Uganda-based researchers from students to academic staff and solidly places that work within the international scholarly ethnomusicological conversation. Burnim, Portia K. Maultsby, 2014-11-13 American Music: An Introduction Second Edition is a collection of seventeen essays surveying major African American musical genres both sacred and secular from slavery to the present. With contributions by leading scholars in the field, the work brings together analyses of African American music based on ethnographic fieldwork which privileges the voices of the music makers themselves woven into a richly textured mosaic of history and culture. At the same time, it incorporates musical treatments that bring clarity to the structural, melodic, and rhythmic characteristics that both distinguish and unify African American music. The second edition has been substantially revised and updated and includes new essays on African and African American musical continuities, African-derived instrument construction and performance practice, techno and quartet traditions, musical transcriptions, photographs, illustrations, and a new audio CD that bring the music to life.

Africanness in Action Juan Diego Díaz, 2021-03-30 In Africanness in Action, author Juan Diego Díaz examines musicians' agency, constructions of blackness, and Africanness, musical structure, performance practices, and rhetoric in Brazil and provides a model for the study of African-derived music in other diasporic locales. Reading

Basquiat Jordana Moore Saggese, 2021-04-06 Before his death at the age of twenty-seven, Jean-Michel Basquiat completed nearly 2,000 works. These unique compositions, collages of text and gestural painting across a variety of media, quickly made Basquiat one of the most important and widely known artists of the 1980s. Reading Basquiat provides a new approach to understanding the range and impact of this artist's practice, as well as its complex relationship to several key artistic and ideological debates of the late twentieth century, including the instability of identity, the role of appropriation, and the boundaries of expressionism. Jordana Moore Saggese argues that Basquiat, once known as the Black Picasso, probes not only the boundaries of blackness but also the boundaries of American art. Weaving together the artist's interests in painting, writing, and music, this groundbreaking book expands the parameters of aesthetic discourse to consider the parallels Basquiat found among these disciplines in his exploration of the production of meaning. Most important, Reading Basquiat traces the ways in which Basquiat constructed large parts of his identity as a black man, as a musician, as a painter, and as a writer via the manipulation of texts in his own library. Uptown Conversation Robert G. O'Meally, Brent Hayes Edwards, Farah

Jasmine Griffin, 2004 Uptown Conversation asserts that jazz is not only a music to define; it is a culture. The essays illustrate how, for more than a century, jazz has initiated a call and response across art forms, geographies, and cultures, inspiring musicians, filmmakers, painters, and poets.
