African English Literature:

African Literatures in English Gareth Griffiths, 2014-09-19 Here is an introduction to the history of English writing from East and West Africa drawing on a range of texts from the slave diaspora to the post war upsurge in African English language and literature from these regions Black African Literature in English Since 1952 Barbara Abrash, 1967 The African Novel in English M. Keith Booker, 1998 In this volume Keith Booker provides an introduction to eight African novels written in English African-English Literature Anne Northgrave Tibble, 1965 The Columbia Guide to East African Literature in English Since 1945 Simon Gikandi, Evan Mwangi, 2007 The Columbia Guide to East African Literature in English Since 1945 challenges the conventional belief that the English language literary traditions of East Africa are restricted to the former British colonies of Kenya Uganda and Tanzania Instead these traditions stretch far into such neighboring countries as Somalia and Ethiopia Simon Gikandi and Evan Mwangi assemble a truly inclusive list of major writers and trends They begin with a chronology of key historical events and an overview of the emergence and transformation of literary culture in the region Then they provide an alphabetical list of major writers and brief descriptions of their concerns and achievements Some of the writers discussed include the Kenyan novelists Grace Ogot and Ngugi wa Thiong'o Ugandan poet and essayist Taban Lo Liyong Ethiopian playwright and poet Tsegaye Gabre Medhin Tanzanian novelist and diplomat Peter Palangyo Ethiopian novelist Berhane Mariam Sahle Sellassie and the novelist M G Vassanji who portrays the Indian diaspora in Africa Europe and North America Separate entries within this list describe thematic concerns such as colonialism decolonization the black aesthetic and the language question the growth of genres like autobiography and popular literature important movements like cultural nationalism and feminism and the impact of major forces such as AIDS HIV Christian missions and urbanization Comprehensive and richly detailed this guide offers a fresh perspective on the role of East Africa in the development of African and world literature in English and a new understanding of the historical cultural and geopolitical boundaries of the region Issues in African Literature E. Nnolim, 2010-12-01 The multitudinous nature of African literature has always been an issue but really not a problem although its oral base has been used by expatriate critics to accuse African literature of thin plots superficial characterisation and narrative structures African literature also it is observed is a mixed grill it is oral it is written in vernacular or tribal tongues written in foreign tongues English French Portuguese and within the foreign language in which it is written pidgin and creole further bend the already bent language giving African literature a further taint of linguistic impurity African literature further suffers from the nature of its newness and this created problems for the critic Because it is new and because its critics are in simultaneous existence with its writers we confront the problem of instant analysis Issues in African Literature continues the debate and tries to clarify contemporary burning issues in African literature by focussing on particular areas where the debate has been most concerned or around which it has hovered and been persistent Black African Literature in English, 1997-1999

Bernth Lindfors, 2003 This volume lists the work produced on anglophone black African literature between 1997 and 1999 This bibliographic work is a continuation of the highly acclaimed earlier volumes compiled by Bernth Lindfors Containing about 10 000 entries some of which are annotated to identify the authors discussed it covers books periodical articles papers in edited collections and selective coverage of other relevant sources Southern African Literature Stephen Gray, 1979

African-English literature Anne Tibble, 1969 Southern African Literatures Michael J. F. Chapman, 1996 This text surveys the work of writers from South Africa Zimbabwe Zambia Malawi Angola Mozambique and Namibia providing a view of the position and role of literature within an apartheid system The main focus of the book is on interpretation and in particular the relationship between literary culture and political life in countries with fiercely contested histories

Literature of Africa Douglas Killam, 2004-11-30 As more works of African Literature are being incorporated into the Language Arts and Cultural Studies curriculum it becomes increasingly important to offer students and educators a meaningful context in which to explore these works As part of Greenwood's Literature as Windows to World Culture series this volume introduces readers to the cultural concerns of 10 of Africa's most renowned writers Written in clear accessible language close analysis is given for 14 novels including Achebe's Things Fall Apart and Paton's Cry the Beloved Country chosen because of their literary importance and the frequency with which they are assigned The ten analysis chapters each begin with a brief account of the authors lives and their writing careers noting especially the experiences and influences which have shaped their writing Following this section is a major essay on their most prominent and best known work Discussion of the historical and cultural issues in the novels is integrated into the literary commentary Students will gain not a deeper appreciation for the fiction but a more solid understanding of the core historical issues and cultural concerns that influence and shape the writing The Introduction outlines the general history and development of Sub Saharan African Literature The colonial experiences and postcolonial struggles the principal subject matter of African writers differs from region to region The geographic organization of this guide into West East and South Africa reflects these different perspectives Each section ends with a list of critical works that will assist readers and researchers further their understanding of the authors and their works Short biographical sketches on 80 authors are also provided to expand readers contact with African literature The index assists users in identifying not only title and authors but also major themes and topics that the writings reveal

Perspectives on South African English Literature Michael J. F. Chapman, Colin Oxenham Gardner, Es'kia Mphahlele, 1992 The Black Presence in English Literature David Dabydeen, 1985 This collection of essays surveys the depiction of black people in English Literature from Shakespeare to contemporary popular fiction The Columbia Guide to West African Literature in English Since 1945 Oyekan Owomoyela, 2008 Owomoyela also discusses such influences as the postwar emergence of Onitsha Market Literature the Mbari Club and the importance of the Noma Award Jacket West African Literatures Stephanie Newell, 2006-06-08 The Oxford Studies in Postcolonial

Literatures series general editor Elleke Boehmer offers stimulating and accessible introductions to definitive topics and key genres and regions within the rapidly diversifying field of postcolonial literary studies in English This study of West African literatures interweaves the analysis of fiction drama and poetry with an exploration of the broader political cultural and intellectual contexts within which West African writers work Anglophone literatures form the central focus of the book with comparative comments on vernacular literature francophone writing and oral literatures and detailed discussion of selected francophone texts in translation e g Senghor Tadjou Beyala B Sembene Moving from a discussion of nationalist and anti colonial writing in the period before independence towards the more experimental writings of contemporary authors such as V ronique Tadjou Ivory Coast Syl Cheney Coker Sierra Leone and Kojo Laing Ghana the book constantly relates texts to the social and political history of West Africa Canonical internationally well known writers such as Chinua Achebe and Wole Soyinka are positioned in relation to the literary cultures and debates which surrounded them when they first produced their seminal texts the discussions and disagreements which have grown up around their work in subsequent decades are also considered The work of new and lesser known writers is also considered including Niyi Osundare Nigeria and Kofi Anyidoho Ghana In order to convey a sense of the rich and complex societies that are clustered beneath the umbrella term postcolonial emphasis is placed on West Africa s diverse oral and popular cultures and the ways in which local intellectuals and readers have responded to the most prominent authors through the aesthetic frameworks generated by these forms

Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, The African Imagination Abiola Irele, 2001 F Abiola Irele is an expert on the anglophone and francophone traditions in post colonial African literature This collection of his essays examines African literary traditions in the broad sense and places the work of individual authors in context Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress. Cataloging Policy and Support Office, 2007 Tongue and Mother Tongue African Literature Association. Meeting, 2002 Tongue and Mother Tongue takes on two compelling challenges the language question and the place and role of the mother tongue in African literature This collection is the culmination of the fierce decades old debate on the question of African literature and its criticism The fourteen essays range from a variety of critical and theoretical perspectives covering the theoretical and ideological aspects of the language question the nature of criticism the influence of the oral tradition critical analysis of mother tongue literature and textual analyses Black African Literature in English Bernth Lindfors, 1986
