History of the African Methodist Episcopal Church Daniel Alexander Payne,1891 A History of African Societies to 1870 Elizabeth Isichei,1997-04-13 This comprehensive and detailed exploration of the African past from prehistory to approximately 1870 is intended to provide a fully up to date complement to the Cambridge History of Africa Reflecting several emphases in recent scholarship it focusses on the changing modes of production on gender relations and on ecology laying particular stress on viewing history from below A distinctive theme is to be found in its analyses of cognitive history The work falls into three sections The first comprises a historiographic analysis and covers the period from the dawn of prehistory to the end of the Early Iron Age The second and third sections are for the most part organised on regional lines the second section ends in the sixteenth century the third carries the story on to 1870 A second volume now in preparation will cover the period from 1870 to 1995 This book attempts a more rounded view of African history than most of the other textbooks on the subject addressed to a largely undergraduate level student Earlier histories have tended to ignore some of the current foci in the scholarly literature on Africa generally not reflected in the textbooks these include discussions of topical issues like ecology and gender Isichei s book is also more radical Macmillan's South African history readers Macmillan and co, ltd,1904 Books in Print ,1994 Catalogue of Books in the Reading Room Imperial Library, Calcutta,National Library (India),1906 An Introduction to African History Matthias Alwodo Ogutu,Simon Kenyanchui,1991 Breaking new ground in African historiography the authors cover the period from pre historic times to post independent Africa Drawing on a wide range of sources the reconstruction throws light on the economic social and political activities of African societies before and after colonisation and the rich African civilisations which were inward as well as outward looking It is demonstrated that Africans were influenced by Christianity and Islam long before colonialism and that Africa interacted with the Europeans and people from Asia in the field of trade over a long period Sixteen chapters are prefaced by a full synopsis of the sources of African history
