African Journeys A Personal Guidebook:

African Journeys John Hylan Heminway, 1990-01-01 From the host of the PBS series Travels and author of the critically acclaimed No Man's Land comes a very special personal guide on what to see and do and where to stay in the colorful and exciting heart of Africa from the Serengeti to a romp with chimps of Gombe and beyond In Full Flight John

Heminway, 2019-02-19 As a member of the renowned Flying Doctors Service Dr Anne Spoerry treated hundreds of thousands of people across rural Kenya over the span of fifty years earning herself the cherished nickname Mama Daktari Mother Doctor Yet few knew that what drove her from post World War II Europe to Africa was a past marked by rebellion submission and personal decisions that earned her another nickname this one sinister while working as a doctor in a Nazi concentration camp In Full Flight explores the question of whether it is possible to rewrite one's past by doing good in the present and takes readers on an extraordinary journey into a dramatic life punctuated by both courage and weakness and driven by a powerful need to atone Pursuing Giraffe Anne Innis Dagg, 2009-08-04 In the 1950s Anne Innis Dagg was a young zoologist with a lifelong love of giraffe and a dream to study them in Africa Based on extensive journals and letters home Pursuing Giraffe vividly chronicles the realization of that dream and the year that she spent studying and documenting giraffe behaviour Dagg was one of the first zoologists to study wild animals in Africa before Jane Goodall and Dian Fossey her memoir captures her youthful enthusiasm for her journey as well as her insight about the complex social and political issues in Africa Once in the field she recorded the complexities of giraffe social relationships but also learned about human relationships in the context of apartheid in South Africa and colonialism in Tanganyika Tanzania and Kenya Hospitality and friendship were readily extended to her as a white woman but she was shocked by the racism of the colonial whites in Africa Reflecting the twenty three year old author's response to an exotic world far removed from the Toronto where she grew up the book records her visits to Zanzibar and Victoria Falls and her climb of Mount Kilimanjaro Pursuing Giraffe is a fascinating account that has much to say about the status of women in the mid twentieth century The book's foreword by South African novelist Mark Behr author of The Smell of Apples and Embrace provides further context for and insights into Dagg's narrative

They Married Adventure Pascal James Imperato, 1999-03 Martin and Osa Johnson thrilled American audiences of the 1920s and 30s with their remarkable movies of far away places exotic peoples and the dramatic spectacle of African wildlife Their own lives were as exciting as the movies they made sailing through the South Sea Islands dodging big game at African waterholes flying small planes over the veldt taking millionaires on safari Osa Johnson's ghostwritten autobiography I Married Adventure became a national bestseller The 1939 film version was billed as the story of World Exploration's First Lady whose indomitable daring would be stayed by neither snarling lion nor crouching leopard tropic tempest nor savage tribesman Heroes to millions Osa and Martin seemed to embody glamor daring and the all American ideal of self reliance Probing beneath the glamor of the Johnsons public image Pascal and Eleanor Imperato explore the more human side of the couple's lives and ways the Johnsons shaped for better and for worse America's vision of Africa Drawing on many years of research access to a wealth of letters and archives interviews with many who worked closely with the Johnsons and their own deep knowledge of Africa the authors present a fascinating and intimate portrait of this intrepid couple
