

WHAT IS LYRIC POETRY?

Lyric poetry is a form of poetic expression that focuses on the personal thoughts, emotions, and experiences of the poet.

It often explores themes of love, nature, beauty, and the human condition in a subjective and emotive manner.

Unlike narrative poetry, which tells a story, lyric poetry is more concerned with conveying the poet's inner feelings and perceptions.

It employs various literary devices such as imagery, metaphor, and symbolism to create vivid and evocative expressions of the poet's inner world.

looks at what it means to be African American free and creative by analyzing Jean Toomer's main body of work specifically his groundbreaking creation Cane. When first published in 1923 this pivotal work of modernism was widely hailed as inaugurating a truly artistic African American literary tradition. Yet Toomer's experiments in literary form are consistently read in terms of political radicalism, protest, and uplift rather than literary radicalism. Ford contextualizes Toomer's poetry, letters, and essays in the literary culture of his period and through close readings of the poems shows how they negotiate formal experimentation, imagism, fragmentation, dialect, and traditional African American forms: slave songs, field hollers, call and response, sermons, lyric poetry. At the heart of Toomer's work is the paradox that poetry is both the saving grace of African American culture and that poetry cannot survive modernity. This contradiction, Ford argues, structures Cane, wherein traditional lyric poetry first flourishes, then falters, then falls silent. The Toomer that Ford discovers in Split-Gut Song is a complicated, contradictory poet who brings his vexed experience and ideas of racial identity to both conventional lyric and experimental forms. Although Toomer has been labelled a political radical, Ford argues that politics is peripheral in his experimental stream of consciousness work. Rather, Toomer exhibits a literary radicalism as he struggles to articulate his perplexed understanding of race and art in 20th century America.
