Dorothy BEA Akoto-Abutiate

African Openings To The Tree Of Life:

African Openings to the Tree of Life, 1987 An expanded version of Developing the inner self T p verso Proverbs and the African Tree of Life Dorothy BEA Akoto-Abutiate, 2014-08-07 In Proverbs and the African Tree of Life Dorothy BEA Akoto Abutiate juxtaposes chosen sayings from Proverbs and selected Ewe Folk proverbs using the agricultural metaphor of grafting which she calls a hermeneutic of grafting Though these two sets of sayings come from completely different cultural contexts Akoto argues that folk sayings proverbs which abound in Africa should be considered as an already mature established tree on to which a piece of the biblical tree is spliced or engrafted to produce hybridized fruits that have uniquely different tastes than the fruits of each tree individually This metaphorical grafting process allows the message of the Bible in Proverbs to be understood imbibed and appropriated in Africa

Re-Membering and Surviving Shirley A. James Hanshaw, 2020-10-01 The first book length critical study of the black experience in the Vietnam War and its aftermath this text interrogates the meaning of heroism based on models from African and African American expressive culture It focuses on four novels Captain Blackman 1972 by John A Williams Tragic Magic 1978 by Wesley Brown Coming Home 1971 by George Davis and De Mojo Blues 1985 by A R Flowers Discussions of the novels are framed within the historical context of all wars prior to Vietnam in which Black Americans fought The success or failure of the hero on his identity quest is predicated upon the extent to which he can reconnect with African or African American cultural memory He is engaged therefore in remembering a term laden with the specificity of race that implies a cultural history comprised of African retentions and an interdependent relationship with the community for survival The reader will find that a common history of racism and exploitation that African Americans and Vietnamese share sometimes results in the hero's empathy with and compassion for the so called enemy a unique contribution of the black novelist to American war literature

The History of Metaphors of Nature Stephen A. Norwick, 2006 This book shows how modern European Languages have a large number of metaphors which represent the whole of nature Metaphors used in natural science and literature such as Mother Nature have a powerful influence on the framing of scientific hypothesis making and these words have guided the history of natural science for several millennia while also influencing North American nature writing

Leading Issues in African-American Studies Nikongo Ba-Nikongo,1997 African American Studies remains one of the more controversial disciplines in the courses of academic pursuit today In part much of the controversy emanates from an inability of practitioners to agree upon any rigid definition of just what constitutes and just what is encompassed within the field At least there is some agreement that its achievement of institutional acceptance with separate programs departments and granting of advanced degrees warrants its treatment as a legitimate field of pursuit in and of itself but indeed this is where the agreement ends On a range of topics scholars in the field of African American Studies hold decidedly different opinions What ought we to include as African American Studies Is Afrocentricity a figment of the imagination or sound scientific enquiry And what place if any does race and racism continue to play in the life changes of African Americans Bi racialism underclassness intra community crime and Afro Jewish relations are also prominent subjects of consideration In Leading Issues in African American Studies BaNikongo has brought together scholars from every associated field of African American Studies and offers a range of perspective on a myriad of topics The text presents differing viewpoints on political social economic cultural and legal issues and succeeds in addressing every major contemporary area of debate in African American academic circles Africa, and African travel and adventure, including the life and travels of Dr. Livingstone, Stanley, Cameron, and the ancient and modern explorers John S. Roberts,1874
