Our Continent, Our Future P. Thandika Mkandawire, Charles Chukwuma Soludo, 1998 Our Continent Our Future presents the emerging African perspective on this complex issue The authors use as background their own extensive experience and a collection of 30 individual studies 25 of which were from African economists to summarize this African perspective and articulate a path for the future They underscore the need to be sensitive to each country's unique history and current condition They argue for a broader policy agenda and for a much more active role for the state within what is largely a market economy Finally they stress that Africa must and can compete in an increasingly globalized world and perhaps most importantly that Africans must assume the leading role in defining the continent's development agenda
