Curated by Joseph K. Vanderpuye, these sayings offer clear, lasting wisdom on life, leadership, community, and human nature. Collected from North, West, East, Central, and Southern Africa, along with widely shared Pan-African classics, the proverbs reflect diverse landscapes and cultures shaped by shared values. They speak plainly about patience, humility, responsibility, resilience, and the power of community. African proverbs are more than sayings; they are survival tools passed down to guide decisions, resolve conflict, and steady people through life's challenges. As Chinua Achebe wrote, "Proverbs are the palm oil with which words are eaten." Each regional section includes a brief introduction to place the wisdom in context and show its relevance today. This is a book to return to, to quote, and to live with. Its lessons endure because they work.
