African Sojourn:

African Sojourn Uwe Ommers, Léopold Sédar Senghor, 1986 African Sojourn Marie H. Payne, 2018-08-15 African Sojourn is a compilation of photographs taken by Marie and William Payne between June 2016 and December 2017 while they lived in South Africa and traveled around the African continent. The photographs are intended to take the viewer on a journey through the cultural and geographical beauty of the continent. We have seen only a snippet of this vast and diverse continent but we believe our photographs provide a window into this place and the people we encountered along the way.

African Affairs, 1918 Ponds of Kalambayi Mike Tidwell, 2011-10-18 Lovers of fine travel and adventure writing will savor Mike Tidwell's richly acclaimed narrative of his days as a Peace Corps volunteer. His task was to help people in the remote corners of Zaire raise tilapia in ponds they would dig themselves with muscle power alone. This book with a new introduction by the author is a masterful account of culture clash, generosity of spirit and true grit. It is a must read for anyone with aspirations to change the world.

De Castro, 2017-01-26 Roberto Bolaño as World Literature provides an introduction to the Chilean novelist that highlights his connections with classic and contemporary masters of world literature and his investigation of topics of international interest such as the rise of rightwing and neofascist movements during the last decades of the 20th century. But this anthology also shows how Roberto Bolaño's participation in world literature is informed in his experiences, identity and more generally cultural location as a Chilean Latin American and more generally Hispanic writer and man. This book provides a corrective to readings of his novels as exclusively postmodern or as unproblematically representative of Chilean or Latin American reality. Roberto Bolaño as World Literature thus helps readers to better understand such complex works as his monumental global five-part masterpiece 2666, his Chilean novels Distant Star and Night in Chile and his Mexican narratives Amulet, The Savage Detectives among other works.
