Maternity in the Post-Apocalypse Renae L. Mitchell, 2021-11-22 Maternity in the Post Apocalypse Novelistic Revisions of Dystopian Motherhood deconstructs the ways in which women novelists have reconceived the post apocalyptic genre in recent decades through narratives centered on heroic maternal characters These writers have placed midwives pregnant women and mothers at the forefront of their novels transforming them from the hapless victims of male oppressors to protagonists who are instrumental in transforming the post apocalyptic social landscape from one that attempts to reconstruct a patriarchal past to one that safeguards validates and even lauds maternity as a form of empowerment In a novelistic future devastated landscape in which human civilizations are shattered and waver at the brink of extinction women who embody facets of maternity are taking the reins of rebuilding human societies by overturning patriarchal assumptions of femininity reclaiming intersectional autonomy and re visioning the possibilities for a declining anthropocene The Bloomsbury Handbook to Toni Morrison Kelly Reames, Linda Wagner-Martin, 2022-12-15 The most substantial collection of critical essays on Morrison to appear since her death in mid 2019 this book contains previously unpublished essays which both acknowledge the universal significance of her writing even as they map new directions Essayists include pre eminent Morrison scholars as well as scholars who work in cultural criticism African American letters American modernism and women s writing The book includes work on Morrison as a public intellectual work which places Morrison s writing within today s currents of contemporary fiction work which draws together Morrison s trilogy of Beloved Jazz and Paradise alongside Dos Passos USA trilogy work which links Morrison to such Black Atlantic artists as Lubaina Himid and others as well as work which offers a reading of influence that goes both directions between Morrison and Faulkner Another cluster of essays treats seldom discussed works by Morrison including an essay on Morrison as writer of children s books and as speaker for children s education In addition a Teaching Morrison section is designed to help teachers and critics who teach Morrison in undergraduate classes The Bloomsbury Handbook to Toni Morrison is wide ranging provocative and satisfying a fitting tribute to one of the greatest American novelists Literacy in a Long Blues Note Coretta M. Pittman, 2022-11-29 Literacy in a Long Blues Note Black Women s Literature and Music in the Late Nineteenth and Early Twentieth Centuries traces the evolution of Black women s literacy practices from 1892 to 1934 A dynamic chronological study the book explores how Black women public intellectuals creative writers and classic blues singers sometimes utilize singular but other times overlapping forms of literacies to engage in debates on race The book begins with Anna J Cooper s philosophy on race literature as one method for social advancement From there author Coretta M Pittman discusses women from the Woman s and New Negro Eras including but not limited to Angelina Weld Grimk Gertrude Ma Rainey and Zora Neale Hurston The volume closes with an exploration of Victoria Spivey s blues philosophy The women examined in this book employ forms of transformational transactional or specular literacy to challenge systems of racial oppression However Literacy in a Long

Blues Note argues against prevalent myths that a singular vision for racial uplift dominated the public sphere in the latter decade of the nineteenth century and the early decades of the twentieth century. Instead, by including Black women from various social classes and ideological positions, Pittman reveals alternative visions. Contrary to more moderate predecessors of the Woman's Era and contemporaries in the New Negro Era, classic blues singers like Mamie Smith advanced new solutions against racism. Early twentieth-century writer Angelina Weld Grimké criticized traditional methods for racial advancement as Jim Crow laws tightened restrictions against Black progress. Ultimately, the volume details the agency and literacy practices of these influential women.

The Keloids We Heal Sarah Soanirina Ohmer, 2025-05-13. The corporeal and spiritual healing in literature by women of colors can be seen to redefine modern thought and printed text. Sarah Soanirina Ohmer traces the impact of colonization and enslavement on Black women and Black women's contributions to colonial nineteenth and twentieth-century literature in the US, Brazil, and the West Indies. Her analysis unlocks the literature's power to heal through gut-wrenching descriptions of wounds and thrilling passages of hope and liberation. Drawing on intersectional analysis, Ohmer focuses on portrayals of trauma and spirituality in works by Toni Morrison, Conceição Evaristo, Maryse Condé, Gloria Anzaldúa, the Quilombhoje poets, and María de los Reyes Castillo. Ohmer compares literature from different countries along four thematic pathways: ghosts, mirrors, naming, and motherhood. Her analysis unlocks the literature's power to heal through gut-wrenching descriptions of wounds and thrilling passages of hope and liberation. Throughout, Ohmer weaves in her life story as a Black woman as she reflects on how colonialism, racism, sexism, and capitalism have impacted her work, traumas, and faith journey.
