Africa After Gender? Catherine M. Cole, Takyiwaa Manuh, Stephan Miescher, 2007-02-07 Africa After Gender looks at Africa now that gender has come into play to consider how the continent its people and the term itself have changed Leading Africanist historians anthropologists literary critics and political scientists move past simple dichotomies entrenched debates and polarizing identity politics to present an evolving discourse of gender Gender Activism and Studies in Africa Signe Arnfred, 2004 Extrait de la couverture This book celebrates the successes in African struggles for gender equality and draws attention to the challenges facing the edification of gender studies women s rights and entitlements It brings together contributions by seasoned gender specialists who draw empirical evidence from several African countries Nigeria Ghana Uganda Mozambique Tanzania and South Africa to critically discuss various experiences in setting up gender and women s studies programmes feminist and gender activism gender identities social protest gender and culture in indigenous films continuities and discontinuities in conception of gender same sex relationship customary law and gendered discourse patterns Transatlantic Feminisms , Cheryl R. Rodriguez, Dzodzi Tsikata, Akosua Adomako Ampofo, 2015-03-18 Transatlantic Feminisms is an interdisciplinary collection of original feminist research on women s lives in Africa and the African diaspora Demonstrating the power and value of transcontinental connections and exchanges between feminist thinkers this unique collection of fifteen essays addresses the need for global perspectives on gender ethnicity race and class Examining diverse topics and questions in contemporary feminist research the authors describe and analyze women s lives in a host of vibrant compelling locations There are essays exploring women s political activism in Kenya Uganda Ghana Santo Domingo Jamaica and Tanzania Other essays explore representation and creativity in Brazil Nigeria and Miami While one essay examines African women as conflicted immigrants in France another recounts the experiences of Haitian women trying to survive in the Dominican Republic Core themes of the book include the evolution of black feminism black feminist political leadership the politics of identity and representation and struggles for agency and survival These themes are interwoven throughout the volume and illuminate different geographic and cultural experiences yet very similar oppressive forces and forms of resistance

African Gender Scholarship Signe Arnfred, 2004 A distinctive contribution of African feminist and gender scholarship has been a conscious effort to draw from and simultaneously rethink concepts paradigms and methodologies that are often taken for granted both in conventional and in mainstream feminist scholarship This with a view to enriching them with perspectives sensitive to the encounters cultures economic and socio political predicaments that have shaped and been shaped by gender relations in Africa This volume brings together essays by some of the leading names on gender studies in Africa as a major contribution to these concerns Situating themselves variously in relation to claims and counter claims on the universalisms and particularisms in African feminism and gender studies the authors debate the relative merits of Eurocentrism African epistemologies and cultures colonial legacies postcolonial realities and other current dilemmas and challenges in understanding and articulating African feminism and gender research Practiced and budding scholars should find this a fascinating read Book cover

Gender Research in Africa Vivian Ojong, R. Sooryamoorthy, 2025-09-30 This book considers how methodologies theories and analytical frameworks from gender studies can be applied to African societies cultural social and historical contexts The book advocates for the importance of feminist research practices which highlight women and their lived experiences within a gendered world in Africa Gender studies has grown in prominence over recent decades rooted in an awareness that gender is no longer just an issue in the margins but core to the analysis of the interaction of power identity and social relations in the world This book considers how the field can evolve further in a postcolonial context integrating indigenous and local knowledge systems and practices Covering how gender is contested in African settings the book outlines how researchers can approach the ways in which social and racial categories class ethnicity and socioeconomic status intersect to produce gender based violence Overall this book shows how gender sensitive methodologies can help researchers to gain deeper insights into discrimination inequalities and gender based violence and thus contribute to better adapted social and legal reforms

Transatlantic Feminisms Cheryl Rene Rodriguez, Dzodzi Tsikata, Akosua Adomako Ampofo, 2015 Transatlantic Feminisms examines the gendered complexities of African and African diaspora worlds This book includes striking accounts of women s strategies to challenge circumvent or manage threats to their survival from such forces as patriarchal political regimes militarism and violence migration displacement and unrelenting poverty

Readings in Gender in Africa Andrea Cornwall, 2005 This is a comprehensive overview on the existing literature on gender in Africa It covers areas such as Western perceptions colonial morality religion and politics

Introduction to Gender Studies in Eastern and Southern Africa James Etim, 2016-07-28 Africa has witnessed massive changes in the last fifty years from independence through structural adjustment rule by military juntas in several countries and to a period now where the focus is on how best to prioritize their needs based on resources national goals and human potential There is general agreement that human capital is important in economic growth and development There is always the need to ensure that resources and human capital are used appropriately to advance development Gender disparities whether in treatment access to resources resource utilization and the law may in themselves retard or slow down development Resources and human potential in all societies include how best to ensure there is no gender disparity and to fully tap the resources inherent in women for personal social and national development Beginning with the women s suffrage movement there has been the push to encourage gender equality worldwide The Fourth World Conference on Women in Beijing in 1995 embodies the commitment of the international community to implement policies that will enhance the political social economic educational empowerment of women This book highlights the issues affecting women in Eastern and Southern Africa what role does custom and patriarchy play in gender disparities in education access to health problems in the workplace and family relationships How have women writers in the last twenty years presented the issues of patriarchy women s rights globalism and women s holistic development What are recent developments that have helped improve the situation for some women These are some of the issues that are covered in this book The thesis of this book is that there have been policies and strategies developed that have worked to empower women However vestiges of sexism gender disparities in several fields still remain and traditions customs and patriarchy have aided in still keeping women down div div

Research on Gender and Sexualities in Africa Tamale, Sylvia, 2017-07-20 This collection comprises a diverse and stimulating collection of essays on questions of gender and sexualities crafted by both established and younger researchers The collection includes fascinating insights into topics as varied as the popularity of thong underwear in urban Kenya the complexity of Tanzanian youth s negotiation of HIV cultures the dialogues between religion and controversial questions in sexualities activism and the meaning of living as a Zimbabwean girl who became HIV positive because her mother had no access to antiretroviral drugs during pregnancy Some pieces deepen contemporary debates others initiate new questions The collection seeks to sustain and invigorate research policy making and continentally focused thought on difficult yet compelling realities Women, Society, and Constraints Jeanette Malherbe, Marc Kleijwegt, Elize Koen, 2000 This title explores the impact of patriarchy on women in past and present societies and it specifically addresses the tenacity of patriarchal systems of thinking and behaviour

Polygyny and Gender Zamambo V. Mkhize, 2023-12-01 The people of Africa have contrasting perspectives on gender feminism and the family from their Western counterparts Similarly social structures like religion capitalism and the law require a context specific application to polygyny This book examines the construction of gender identity in adults raised in Zulu polygynous families in the Hammarsdale area in KwaZulu Natal South Africa It highlights the complexities of gender identities as participants negotiate between modern constitutional and individual freedoms and patriarchal cultural and communal customs and traditions The themes also point towards the argument between individuality and collectivism in the creation of gender identity within polygynous families in Zulu culture The South African Constitution guarantees gender equality and individual rights and freedoms for its citizens yet customary law practices like polygyny appear to contravene these principles The participants reveal that although women and men experience different consequences they cite similar prevalent factors like gender role socialisation naming practices and the doctrine of seniority influencing their gender identity construction Print edition not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa Beyond Women's Empowerment in Africa E. Swai,2010-06-21 This book breaks new ground in understanding how modern society has shaped women s knowledge system in Africa and deconstructs long held myths about the position of ordinary women in the construction of knowledge African Sexualities Sylvia Tamale,2011-06-23 A groundbreaking book accessible but scholarly by African activists It uses research life stories and artistic expression including essays case studies poetry news clips songs fiction memoirs letters interviews short film scripts and photographs to examine dominant and deviant sexualities and investigate the intersections between sex power masculinities and femininities It also opens a space particularly for young people to think about African sexualities in different ways Contemporary African Literature and the Politics of Gender Florence Stratton,1994 The influence of colonialism and race on the development of African literature has been the subject of a number of studies The effect of patriarchy and gender however and indeed the contributions of African women have up until now been largely ignored by the critics Contemporary African Literature and the Politics of Gender is the first extensive account of African literature from a feminist perspective In this first radical and exciting work Florence Stratton outlines the features of an emerging female tradition in African fiction A chapter is dedicated to each to the works of four women writers Grace Ogot Flora Nwapa Buchi Emecheta and Mariama Ba In addition she provides challenging new readings of canonical male authors such as Chinua Achebe Ngugi wa Thiongo o and Wole Soyinka Contemporary African Literature and the Politics of Gender thus provides the first truly comprehensive definition of the current literary tradition in Africa Queens, Queen Mothers, Priestesses, and Power Flora S. Kaplan,1997 A collection of 18 case studies of women in power in Africa It focuses on the political and ritual roles of royal and elite women who are gathered together by tradition choice and circumstance and who as a result achieve and exercise power and acquire and exert influence in the public and private arenas of their societies A dozen sub Saharan ethnic groups are represented mostly from West and South Africa The volume is interdisciplinary with contributions drawn from the fields of anthropolgy art history history political science comparative literature African and African American studies women s studies and religion Jacketed Women Jane M. Bennett,Charmaine Pereira,2013 Over the past decade there has been an increasing emphasis in African scholarship and research on the importance of understanding sexuality and the issues around it Africa has at times been positioned as a continent where there is hostility to discussions of sexual and reproductive rights and where questions of sexuality and gender have been driven largely by the need to understand and stem the HIV epidemic Jacketed Women challenges both these ideas In this collection women researchers from diverse backgrounds explore the complexities of the politics of gender and sexualities in Africa and what it means to research topics that are fraught with the sense of taboo The chapters cover broad ranging issues such as Sharia interpretations of appropriate sexuality teenage motherhood and the concept of good woman versus bad woman abortion sexual restriction in widowhood and homosexuality and intersexuality The studies come from Nigeria and Sudan Lesotho Kenya Zimbabwe and South Africa Overall they offer the opportunity to see qualitative research not as the poor cousin of quantitative studies but as a methodology which raises intellectual and political challenges This volume which adds to a growing collection of exciting new writing on gender and sexualities will be of interest to academics as well as those located within public intellectual debates on the politics of researching taboo or unfashionable topics It has been welcomed by some of Africa s leading theorists on gender and sexualities such as Professor Sylvia Tamale Dean of Law at Makerere University Kampala Uganda Book jacket African Women's Studies, 1980-2001 Desiree Lewis,2002
