African Healing Strategies:

African Healing Strategies Brian M. Du Toit, Ismail Hussein Abdalla, 1985 Tradition, Culture and Development in Africa Ambe J. Njoh, 2006 By linking culture and tradition with socio economic development this book breaks new ground in the discourse on development It highlights the differences between Euro centric and African culture where concepts such as capital accumulation entrepreneurial attitudes and material wealth are not top priority In doing so it dispels popular myths stereotypes and distortions as well as discounting misleading accounts about major aspects of African culture and traditional practices

Global Psychologies Suman Fernando, Roy Moodley, 2018-06-25 This book critiques our reliance on Eurocentric knowledge in the education and training of psychology and psychiatry Chapters explore the diversity of constructions of the self in non Western cultures examining traditional psychologies from Africa Asia Australasia and Pre Columbian America The authors discuss liberation psychologies and contemporary movements in healing and psychological therapy that draw on both Western and non Western sources of knowledge A central theme confronted is the importance in a rapidly shrinking world for knowledge systems derived from diverse cultures to be explored and disseminated equally The authors contend that for this to happen academia as a whole must lead in promoting cross national and cross cultural understanding that is free of colonial misconceptions and prejudices This unique collection will be of value to all levels of study and practice across psychology and psychiatry and to anyone interested in looking beyond Western definitions and understandings

An African Worldview Ian D. Dicks, 2012 In this book Ian Dicks informs the reader about the ways in which the Yawo of Malawi view the world The Yawo are predominantly Muslim yet many maintain strong links with their traditional religion They are a largely oral society teaching and reinforcing their beliefs and practices using oral literature which includes myths proverbs proverbial stories songs of advice and prayers at various stages of the life cycle particularly during initiation events Ian Dicks describes in detail the Yawo s material world customs beliefs and rituals and juxtaposes these with Yawo oral literature He then examines them under six worldview categories the result being a rich description of the way in which the Yawo see the world This book is not an armchair study but has the feel of being written by an eyewitness by someone who has had first hand experience of the subject and who seeks to describe this in a manner which is sensitive to the Yawo and their culture

Inequality and African-American Health Hill, Shirley A., 2016-10-05 This book shows how living in a highly racialized society affects health through multiple social contexts including neighborhoods personal and family relationships and the medical system Black white disparities in health illness and mortality have been widely documented but most research has focused on single factors that produce and perpetuate those disparities such as individual health behaviors and access to medical care This is the first book to offer a comprehensive perspective on health and sickness among African Americans starting with an examination of how race has been historically constructed in the US and in the medical system and the resilience of racial ideologies and practices Racial disparities in health reflect racial inequalities in living conditions incarceration rates family systems and opportunities These racial disparities often cut across social class boundaries and have gender specific consequences Bringing together data from existing quantitative and qualitative research with new archival and interview data this book advances research in the fields of families race ethnicity and medical sociology
