African Journey:

My African Journey Winston Churchill, 1908 In 1907 Churchill aged 33 and in his first ministerial post as Parliamentary Under Secretary of State for the Colonies undertook a tour of East Africa a tour that combined big game hunting with official engagements This book originally published in 1908 recounts his journey through lands only just beginning to feel the impact of the West No index Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR My African Journey (Classic Reprint) Right Hon, 2015-06-30 Excerpt from My African Journey In so far as the collection of information is concerned the advantages of travel may often be over stated So much has been written so many facts are upon record about every country even the most remote that a judicious and persevering study of existing materials would no doubt enable a reader to fill himself with knowledge almost to repletion without leaving his chair But for the formation of opinion for the stirring and enlivenment of thought and for the discernment of colour and proportion the gifts of travel especially of travel on foot are priceless It was with the design and in the hope of securing such prizes that I undertook last year the pilgrimage of which these pages give account About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works My African Journey (Unabridged) Winston Churchill, 2018-03-21 This eBook edition of My African Journey has been formatted to the highest digital standards and adjusted for readability on all devices My African Journey describes Winston Churchill's journey up the Uganda Railroad Churchill was the Under secretary of State for the Colonies when he undertook the journey of East Africa in 1907 He gives wonderful descriptions of the countryside and meetings with local tribes and provides an authentic look into late colonial attitudes African Journey Tony Gaston, 2019-10-15 Fresh out of university in 1968 Tony Gaston set out to explore for birds in the Ahaggar Mountains of the central Sahara Without a map or compass he continued south to Niger and westwards to Liberia and Sierra Leone traveling on trucks and buses and on foot through countries just emerging from colonialism He carried little more than a sleeping bag a teapot and a pair of binoculars to pursue his passion for birdwatching and relied on his wits and the kindness of strangers to help him along He encountered many extraordinary people on the way including Peace Corps volunteers and missionaries policemen and prostitutes barkeepers and beggars whose stories mix with his own and give shape to his adventures On the fiftieth anniversary of his trip Tony casts a quizzical gaze on the past and its characters forming a reminiscence of youth in the gentler era of the 1960s Drawing from his memory and written records this tale explores the nature of recollection in later life and the fluid association between wealth and well being African Journey Eslanda Goode Robeson, 1945
