The Good, the Bad, and the Beautiful Barry Hallen, 2000-12-22 The Good the Bad and the Beautiful Discourse about Values in Yoruba Culture Barry Hallen Reveals everyday language as the key to understanding morals and ethics in Yoruba culture This contrasts with any suggestion that in Yoruba or more generally African society moral thinking manifests nothing much more than a supine acquiescence in long established communal values Hallen renders a great service to African philosophy Kwasi Wiredu In Yoruba culture morality and moral values are intimately linked to aesthetics The purest expression of beauty at least for human beings is to possess good moral character But how is moral character judged How do actions and especially words reveal good moral character in a culture that is still significantly based on oral tradition In this original and intimate look at Yoruba culture Barry Hallen asks the Yoruba onisegun the wisest and most accomplished herbalists or traditional healers individuals justly reputed to be well versed in Yoruba thought and expression what it means to be good and beautiful Posed as an outsider wanting to gain understanding of how to speak Yoruba correctly Hallen engages the onisegun and has them explain the subtleties and intricacies of Yoruba language use and the philosophy behind particular word choices Their instructions reveal a striking and profound depiction of Yoruba aesthetic and ethical thought The detailed interpretations of everyday language that Hallen supplies challenge prevailing Western views that African thought is nothing more than acquiescence to long established religious or communal values The philosophy of ordinary language reveals that moral reflection is indeed individual and that evaluations of action and character take place on the basis of clearly and logically delineated criteria With the onisegun as his guides Hallen identifies the priorities of Yoruba philosophy and culture through everyday expression and shows that there are rational pathways to both truth and beauty Barry Hallen has taught philosophy at the Obafemi Awolowo University formerly University of Ife in Nigeria He is a Fellow at the W E B DuBois Institute for Afro American Research at Harvard University and Visiting Professor of Philosophy at Morehouse College He is coauthor with J Olubi Sodipo of Knowledge Belief and Witchcraft Analytic Experiments in African Philosophy Contents Ordinary Language and African Philosophy Moral Epistemology Me My Self and My Destiny The Good and the Bad The Beautiful Rationality Individuality Secularity and the Proverbial Appendix of Yoruba Language Quotations Glossary of Yoruba Terms African Philosophy and the Hermeneutics of Culture Theophilus Okere, 2005 The Series Studies in African Philosophy is a forum for the publication and wider dissemination of researches and reflections of value on all aspects of African philosophy While recognising the special advantage of interdisciplinary approach in modern scholarship it retains a special predilection for works that have special African philosophic import Although Theophilus Okere's book African Philosophy has made remarkable impact on African philosophical scholarship many may not be aware of the way he tried to apply his preferred method to other areas of the philosophical investigation in Africa and to overcome the risk of relativism through the promotion of intercultural dialogue in philosophy The essays published in this volume bear testimony to the multivalent character of Okere's contribution to African philosophy. Most of the essays are about Okere's hermeneutics of culture. Some of the authors examine the method in itself while others focus attention on its application to specific philosophical themes. Book jacket Philosophy and Cultures H. Odera Oruka, D. A. Masolo, 1983 Proceedings: Philosophical perspectives in black studies National Council for Black Studies (U.S.). Conference, 1983 On Race and Philosophy Lucius Outlaw, 2016-01-08 On Race and Philosophy is a collection of essays written and published across the last twenty years which focus on matters of race philosophy and social and political life in the West in particular in the US. These important writings trace the author's continuing efforts not only to confront racism especially within philosophy but more importantly to work out viable conceptions of raciality and ethnicity that are empirically sound while avoiding chauvinism and invidious ethnocentrism. The hope is that such conceptions will assist efforts to fashion a nation state in which racial and ethnic cultures and identities are recognized and nurtured contributions to a more just and stable democracy African Philosophy Guttorm Fløistad, 1981 A continuation of two earlier series of chronicles Philosophy in the mid century Frieze 1958-59 and Contemporary philosophy Frieze 1968 Pref Representing African Music Kofi Agawu, 2014-04-23 The aim of this book is to stimulate debate by offering a critique of discourse about African music. Who writes about African music how and why? What assumptions and prejudices influence the presentation of ethnographic data? Even the term African music suggests there is an agreed upon meaning but African music signifies differently to different people. This book also poses the question then: What is African music? Agawu offers a new and provocative look at the history of African music scholarship that will resonate with students of ethnomusicology and post colonial studies. He offers an alternative Afro-centric means of understanding African music and in doing so illuminates a different mode of creativity beyond the usual provenance of Western criticism. This book will undoubtedly inspire heated debate and new thinking among musicologists, cultural theorists and post colonial thinkers. Also includes 15 musical examples African Philosophy Essential Read Tsenay Serequeberhan, 1991 The eleven papers in this anthology all by Africans represent a variety of philosophical positions that are central to the debate in and on African philosophy as it has developed thus far. An introduction essay explores the historical, political and existential context of the debate and is followed by a presentation of the documentary orientation, ethnophilosophy. The five papers that follow articulate positions that reject ethnophilosophy and emphasize its scientific approach to philosophy. Finally, the last four papers articulate philosophical positions reflecting the historicity of the African situation. Throughout the anthology is informed by the belief that African philosophy is a historically engaged activity aimed at the political empowerment of the African people.
