African Religion Meets Islam Dean S. Gilliland, 1986      The Gods in Retreat Emefie Ikenga Metuh, 1985      Dawn for Islam in Eastern Nigeria Egodi Uchendu, 2020-08-10 No detailed description available for Dawn for Islam in Eastern Nigeria      The History of Islam in Africa Nehemia Levtzion, Randall L. Pouwels, 2000-03-31 The history of the Islamic faith on the continent of Africa spans fourteen centuries For the first time in a single volume The History of Islam in Africa presents a detailed historic mapping of the cultural political geographic and religious past of this significant presence on a continent wide scale Bringing together two dozen leading scholars this comprehensive work treats the historical development of the religion in each major region and examines its effects Without assuming prior knowledge of the subject on the part of its readers The History of Islam in Africa is broken down into discrete areas each devoted to a particular place or theme and each written by experts in that particular arena The introductory chapters examine the principal gateways from abroad through which Islam traditionally has influenced Africans The following two parts present overviews of Islamic history in West Africa and the Sudanic zone and in subequatorial Africa In the final section the authors discuss important themes that have had an impact on Muslim communities in Africa Designed as both a reference and a text The History of Islam in Africa will be an essential tool for libraries scholars and students of this growing field Contributors Edward A Alpers Ren A Bravmann Abdin Chande Eric Charry Allan Christelow Roberta Ann Dunbar Kenneth W Harrow Lansin Kaba Lidwien Kapteijns Nehemia Levtzion William F S Miles David Owusu Ansah M N Pearson Randall L Pouwels Stefan Reichmuth David Robinson Peter von Sivers Robert C H Shell Jay Spaulding David C Sperling with Jose H Kagabo Jean Louis Triaud Knut S Vik r John O Voll and Ivor Wilks      African Traditions Meeting Islam Lawrence Odhiambo Oseje, 2018-12-31 In many communities across the world traditional beliefs and practices are passed down generations and are a feature of day to day life despite the influence of outside sources Focusing on Luo Muslims in Kenya Dr Lawrence Oseje looks at the interaction of Islam and traditional Luo practices especially those around death and burial Dr Oseje s research with Luo Muslims in Kendu Bay investigates the impact of the traditional Luo conceptualization of death with their current views and provides new understanding of fundamental issues that affect the lives of ordinary Muslims From his observation of this community Oseje encourages a celebration of traditions and customs showing that an appreciation of traditions and beliefs can help develop ministry to local communities Dr Oseje s findings result in a deepened understanding of cultures how they develop from a blend of influences and provides anthropological and missiological guidelines for cross cultural ministry particularly in times of bereavement      Muslim Modernity in Postcolonial Nigeria Ousmane Kane, 2003-01-01 This book deals with Muslim modernity in a country with the largest single Muslim population in Sub Saharan Africa It provides much needed new grounds for comparative study Until now virtually all socio anthropological works about any specific African country are either authored by nationals of that country or by Western scholars This book is an exception because its author is an

Islamicist and a social scientist from Senegal trained in the French social science tradition Therefore his work does offer an original perspective in the study of Nigeria In addition the study of Islam south of the Sahara has so far focused on Sufi orders which form the mainstream of Islam but which by no means covers the whole Islamic field so-called Islamic fundamentalist movements are also part of the religious landscape This book is devoted to the study of the largest single Muslim fundamentalist organization in postcolonial Sub Saharan Africa the Society for the Removal of Innovation and Reinstatement of Tradition Democratization and Islamic Law Johannes Harnischfeger,2008 When democracy was introduced to Nigeria in 1999 one third of its federal states declared that they would be governed by sharia or Islamic law This work argues that such a break with secular constitutional traditions in a multireligious country can have disastrous consequences Religion, Law, and Freedom Yahya R. Kamalipour, Joel Thierstein,2000-09-30 Religion Law and Freedom A Global Perspective introduces readers to diverse perspectives on the interplay of religion law and communications freedom in different cultures around the world Through discussion and analysis of the religious mores and cultural values that a nation adheres to a greater understanding of that nation its laws and its freedoms can be cultivated Rather than suggesting that harmony can be achieved without conflict the essays in this volume seek to present the reader with a variety of perspectives from which to view and understand the relationships among religion law and freedom in various cultures This multifaceted analysis therefore helps readers draw their own conclusions as to the best way to resolve cultural conflict brought about by the growing global community The book consists of fifteen chapters authored or coauthored by 17 international scholars representing China Germany Israel Iran Japan Latvia Nigeria Singapore the United Kingdom and the United States The chapters are organized into four parts Perspectives on Eastern and Western Religions Press Freedom in Religious and Secular Societies Journalism Advertising and Ethical Issues and Religion Politics Media and Human Rights This important contribution will especially appeal to researchers and students in such fields as mass communications legal studies cultural studies political science religion intercultural communications international communications and journalism The Legacy of Arab-Islam in Africa John Allembillah Azumah,2014-10-01 Thoughtful and challenging this book argues for a reassessment of the role historically played by Islam in Africa and offers new hope for increased mutual understanding between African people of different faiths Drawing on a wealth of sources from the colonial period to the most up to date scholarship the author challenges the widely held perception that while Christianity oppressed and subjugated the African people Islam fitted comfortably into the indigenous landscape Instead this penetrating account reveals Muslim settlers to be as guilty of enforcing slavery and conversion as those of their more maligned sister tradition Only with an acknowledgement of the true roles of both faiths in African history suggests Azumah can the people of both traditions move themselves and their continent towards a new future of tolerance and self awareness The Religious Other Martin Accad,Jonathan Andrews,2020-12-31 We live at a time when religious diversity has become a fact of life in our globalized societies Yet Christian engagement with

Muslims remains complex complicated by fear misunderstanding and a history fraught with political and cultural tensions These essays drawn from the 2018 and 2019 Middle East Consultations hosted by the Arab Baptist Theological Seminary s Institute of Middle East Studies engage the need for a carefully developed theological understanding of Islam its origins and its sacred text Weaving together the work of christian scholars of Islam the Bible theology and missiology along with the insights of ministry practitioners this book combines scholarly exploration with pertinent ministry practice offering a rich framework for the church to continue its conversation about its engagement with Muslim communities and its proclamation of Christ worldwide

Religion, Politics and Power in Northern Nigeria Matthew Hassan Kukah,1993

Islam, Medicine, and Practitioners in Northern Nigeria Ismail Hussein Abdalla,1997 The author of this text argues that although the Islamic and the pre Islamic Hausa medical systems have much in common their theoretical and conceptual frameworks are different They operate from different understandings of the causes of disease and misfortune and of the appropriate methods to be employed to restore health or alleviate suffering The book also discusses another significant difference between the Islamic and non Islamic Hausa medical systems the mode of preserving and communicating medical knowledge The early history of Islamic medicine is also described and its theories concepts and historical developments are explored

Christian-Muslim Relations in Nigeria Isidore U. Nwanaju,2008 This book is an intercultural study of Christian Muslim relationship in Nigeria spanning the pre and post Independence eras It seeks against the backdrop of the persistent crisis and conflicts to explore avenues for dialogue and harmonious interaction between adherents of the two most patronized albeit non indigenous religions in Nigeria Christianity and Islam The author examines the historical backgrounds of the country s ethnographic and sociopolitical configuration the origin nature and impact of each religion the positive as well as negative dimensions of the relations between Muslims and Christians under various epochs of Nigeria s political life The book concludes with theological overview and prescriptive advocacy on the pathway to inter religious peace and harmony in Nigeria

A History of Nigeria Toyin Falola,Matthew M. Heaton,2008-04-24 Nigeria is Africa s most populous country and the world s eighth largest oil producer but its success has been undermined in recent decades by ethnic and religious conflict political instability rampant official corruption and an ailing economy Toyin Falola a leading historian intimately acquainted with the region and Matthew Heaton who has worked extensively on African science and culture combine their expertise to explain the context to Nigeria s recent troubles through an exploration of its pre colonial and colonial past and its journey from independence to statehood By examining key themes such as colonialism religion slavery nationalism and the economy the authors show how Nigeria s history has been swayed by the vicissitudes of the world around it and how Nigerians have adapted to meet these challenges This book offers a unique portrayal of a resilient people living in a country with immense but unrealized potential

Islam Among the Swahili in East Africa Caleb Chul-soo Kim,2004

Religion and Politics in Nigeria Niels Kastfelt,1994 A study of relations between Christians and Muslims in Africa especially Nigeria and Tanzania and the effect of religions on many aspects of life and government     Art and Islamic Literacy Among the Hausa of Northern Nigeria Salah M. Hassan,1992 Taking a perspective based on folk lore this text is an ethnographic study of the tools artifacts and other expressions of the material culture of literacy as it is found in the clerics diverse activities within the context of the Hausa society in northern Nigeria This study fills a gap in African data by addressing how informational magical as well as aesthetic potentials of the written word have been adapted in local contexts It explores the origins of the diverse roles and types of malams represented primarily by malaman Qur ani and malaman Ilmi The history and origin of the current calligraphic styles adapted and developed by the Hausa malams are investigated as a guide to understanding calligraphic designs and writings on manuscripts charms amulets Qur anic boards architectural decorations and other artifacts     Journal of Religion in Africa ,1985     Religious Impact on the Nation State Pat Williams,Toyin Falola,1995 This text examines the link between religion and politics both at the level of theory and with specific reference to Nigeria The first part of the book focuses on major local issues and the second on how religion affects the country s relations The religious problem has become prominent not only for its recurrence but also for its intensity Nigeria itself is plural with innumerable religious groups although this need not be a problem if pluralism is used to promote freedom of association democracy and human rights It does become a problem if as this book notes religious groups make self centered demands on the state when the state succumbs to such demands or to blackmail and when public officers use religious groups and leaders for their own political survival     African Religion and Culture Alive! Chirevo V. Kwenda,Nokuzola Mndende,Janet Stonier,1997
