African Underclass Urbanization Crime :

African Underclass Andrew Burton,2005 African Underclass examines the social political and administrative repercussions of rapid urbanization in colonial Dar es Salaam and the evolution of official policy that viewed urbanization as inextricably linked with social disorder This policy marginalized numbers of young Africans entering the town and thus paradoxically the policy itself subverted the colonial order Well researched and sharply written one of the best and most stimulating accounts of urbanization in Eastern Africa to have been produced in recent years John McCracken emeritus professor of history University of Stirling Andrew Burton is assistant director of the British Institute in Eastern Africa

African Underclass Andrew Burton,2005 Examines how the colonial state dealt with rapid urbanisation in the context of the state s views on social order and disorder Themes in Modern African History and Culture Lars Berge, Irma

Taddia,2013 Prison Architecture and Punishment in Colonial Senegal Dior Konaté,2018-10-15 For the past four decades a rich scholarship has investigated the emergence of the prison in Europe and North America mainly the connection between institutional architecture techniques of social control and mechanisms of discipline Prison Architecture and Punishment in Colonial Senegal asks if these connections did exist in colonial Senegal since prisons in Africa had never been the focus of such scholarship This book addresses three main themes First it analyzes prison buildings and their changing architectural forms throughout the colonial period to highlight how the French used prison architecture to control Africans Second it describes the connections between the internal layout of prison spaces and punishment to show how the design of prisons expressed the notions of punishment and reforms The book also undertakes a critical assessment of inmates agency in reshaping the world of prisons in colonial Senegal Finally it discusses the legacy of colonial prisons in independent Senegal By providing a comprehensive history of prison architecture in Senegal the book helps insert Africa into a more global history by offering a uniquely comparative study of colonialism architecture and punishment The Palgrave

Handbook of African Colonial and Postcolonial History Martin S. Shanguhya, Toyin Falola,2018-01-28 This wide ranging volume presents the most complete appraisal of modern African history to date It assembles dozens of new and established scholars to tackle the questions and subjects that define the field ranging from the economy the two world wars nationalism decolonization and postcolonial politics to religion development sexuality and the African youth experience Contributors are drawn from numerous fields in African studies including art music literature education and anthropology The themes they cover illustrate the depth of modern African history and the diversity and originality of lenses available for examining it Older themes in the field have been treated to an engaging re assessment while new and emerging themes are situated as the book s core strength The result is a comprehensive vital picture of where the field of modern African history stands today An Uncertain Age Paul Ocobock,2017-03-27 In twentieth century Kenya age and gender were powerful cultural and political forces that animated household and generational relationships They also shaped East Africans contact with and influence on emergent colonial and global ideas about age and masculinity Kenyan men and boys came of age achieving their manhood through changing rites of passage and access to new outlets such as town life crime anticolonial violence and nationalism And as they did the colonial government appropriated masculinity and maturity as means of statecraft and control In An Uncertain Age Paul Ocozbek positions age and gender at the heart of everyday life and state building in Kenya He excavates in unprecedented ways how the evolving concept of youth motivated and energized colonial power and the movements against it exploring the masculinities boys and young men debated and performed as they crisscrossed the colony in search of wages or took the Mau Mau oath Yet he also considers how British officials own ideas about masculinity shaped not only young African men s ideas about manhood but the very nature of colonial rule An Uncertain Age joins a growing number of histories that have begun to break down monolithic male identities to push the historiographies of Kenya and empire into new territory

Dar es Salaam. Histories from an Emerging African Metropolis James Brennan, Yus Burton, 2007-10-15 From its modest beginnings in the mid 19th century Dar es Salaam has grown to become one of sub Saharan Africa s most important urban centres A major political economic and cultural hub the city stood at the cutting edge of trends that transformed twentieth century East Africa Dar es Salaam has recently attracted the attention of a diverse multi disciplinary range of scholars making it currently one of the continent s most studied urban centres This collection from eleven scholars from Africa Europe North America and Japan draws on some of the best of this scholarship and offers a comprehensive and accessible survey of the city s development The perspectives include history musicology ethnomusicology culture including popular culture land and urban economics The opening chapter offers a comprehensive overview of the history of the city Subsequent chapters examine Dar es Salaam s twentieth century experience through the prism of social change and the administrative repercussions of rapid urbanisation and through popular culture and shifting social relations The book will be of interest not only to the specialist in urban studies but also to the general reader with an interest in Dar es Salaam s environmental social and cultural history
