African Visions:

African Voices, African Visions Olugbenga Adesida, Arunma Oteh, 2004 Does Africa have a future What are the visions hopes ambitions and fears of young Africans for the future of the world the continent their nation and their communities How do they envision this world and their roles within it These issues have not previously been explored collectively by Africans because of the enormous challenges and the preoccupation with the present But Africa must not allow the enormity of the problems to blind it to its past and future Africa must chart its own vision of a desirable future and therefore young Africans born just before or after independence were challenged to reflect on the future of the continent This book presents the response to that challenge In this book the voices of a new generation of Africa are heard exploring the future from personal and diverse perspectives The authors have enumerated the ills of Africa analyzed the problems and explored the opportunities Remarkably despite the daunting nature of the challenges they were all hopeful about the future They provided their visions of the future suggest numerous ideas on how to build a new Africa and implored Africans to take responsibility for the transformation of the continent Given the current emphasis on African renaissance and union the ideas presented here could become the basis for a truly shared vision for the continent

African Visions Cheryl Mwaria, Silvia Federici, Joseph McLaren, 2000-08-30 The complexity of African society entering the 21st century necessitates an interdisciplinary examination of Africa's political social and cultural developments and challenges Focusing on Social Movements and Literature Social Change and Culture the book brings together a wide range of essays by committed scholars writers and activists concerned with progressive approaches to Africa's dilemmas Beginning with an overview by anthropologist Cheryl Mwaria African Visions addresses such issues as structural adjustments religious freedom human rights democratization educational movements and health care Particular analyses consider intellectual property student activism and the AIDS epidemic Mwaria Federici and McLaren also explore the way social and cultural questions have been treated in literary works and theoretical studies dealing with hybridity sexual politics literacy socialist orientations and language Noted literary scholars Odun Balogun and Alamin Mazrui consider aspects of these issues The collection also examines trends in literature publishing and theater in such countries as Algeria Niger Nigeria and South Africa in relation to themes such as gender popular culture African novels and protest Highlighting articles by two of Africa's leading activist writers Dennis Brutus of South Africa stressing regional cooperation and Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o of Kenya advocating African languages African Visions avoids the pessimism associated with numerous 20th century studies Brutus and Ngũgĩ consider the economic and cultural effects of globalization and the necessity for promoting self-determination An essential resource for all scholars and students concerned with contemporary African life and culture
