Africas Children:

African Children at Work Gerd Spittler, M. F. C. Bourdillon, 2012 Most children in Africa start working from a very early age helping the family or earning wages Should this work be abolished tolerated or encouraged Such questions are the subject of much debate International and national organizations employers parents and children often have diverse opinions and put pressure in different directions The contributions in this book offer intensive fieldwork and careful analysis of children s activities considering childhood and family work and play work in rural and urban contexts paths to learning work and school and children s rights Series Reports on African Studies Beitrage zur Afrikaforschung Vol 52 Welcoming Africa's children - Theological and ministry perspectives Jan Grobbelaar, Gert Breed, Stephan de Beer, Nico Koopman, Elijah Mahlangu, Malan Nel, Dirkie Smit, Pieter Verster, 2016-12-31 The purpose of this book is to combine perspectives of scholars from Africa on Child Theology from a variety of theological sub disciplines to provide some theological and ministerial perspectives on this topic The book disseminates original research and new developments in this study field especially as relevant to the African context In the process it addresses also the global need to hear voices from Africa in this academic field It aims to convey the importance of considering Africa s children in theologising The different chapters represent diverse methodologies but the central and common focus is to approach the subject from the viewpoint of Africa s children The individual authors varied theological sub disciplinary dispositions contribute to the unique and distinct character of the book Almost all chapters are theoretical orientated with less empirical but more qualitative research although some of the chapters refer to empirical research that the authors have performed in the past Most of the academic literature in the field of Child Theologies is from American or British European origin The African context is fairly absent in this discourse although it is the youngest continent and presents unique and relevant challenges This book was written by theological scholars from Africa focussing on Africa s children It addresses not only theoretical challenges in this field but also provides theological perspectives for ministry with children and for important social change Written from a variety of theological sub disciplines the book is aimed at scholars across theological sub disciplines especially those theological scholars interested in the intersections between theology childhood studies and African cultural or social themes It addresses themes and provides insights that are also relevant for specialist leaders and professionals in this field No part of the book was plagiarised from another publication or published elsewhere Social Protection for Africa's Children Sudhanshu Handa, Stephen Devereux, Douglas Webb, 2010-10-04 Social protection is an increasingly important part of the social policy dialogue in Africa and yet because of its relatively new place in a rapidly evolving agenda evidence on critical design choices such as targeting and on impacts of social protection interventions is mostly limited to case studies or small unrepresentative surveys This impressive collection makes a major contribution to building the evidence base drawing on rigorous analysis of social protection programmes in several African countries as well as original research and thinking on key topical issues in the social protection discourse Social Protection for Africa s Children is divided into four parts The first presents economic and human rights based right arguments for social protection as an integral part of the social policy menu in Africa This is followed by a part on targeting which highlights some of the key policy trade offs faced when deciding between alternative target groups The third part presents rigorous quantitative evidence on the impact of social cash transfers on children from programmes in South Africa Malawi and Ethiopia and the final part addresses a set of issues related to social justice and human rights This book significantly advances existing knowledge about social protection for children in Africa both conceptually and empirically It makes a strong case for social protection interventions that address the short term amelioration and long term structural needs of children and shows that programming in this sector for children is both feasible and achievable Policy makers and practitioners in this sector will have in this book the theoretical and empirical evidence necessary to advance social protection for Africa s children in the decades to come Furthermore this book should be an essential resource to postgraduates and students focussing on development economics in Africa

Children's Rights in Africa Julia Sloth-Nielsen,2016-05-23 This collection is anchored in an African conception of children s rights and the law and reflects contemporary discourses taking place in the region of the children s rights sphere The majority of contributors are African and adopt an individual approach to their topic which reflects their first hand experience The book focuses on child rights issues which have particular resonance on the continent and the chapters span themes which are both broad and narrow containing subject matter which is both theoretical and illuminated by practice The book profiles recent developments and experiences in furthering children s legal rights in the African context and distils from these future trends the specific role that the law can play in the African children s rights environment

Africa's Mountain Valley; Or, The Church in Regent's Town, West Africa Maria Louisa Charlesworth,1874 The greater part of the materials for the present volume will be found in a work published three years ago entitled The memoir of the Rev W A B Johnson containing the diary and letters of the devoted missionary Preface
