

About the Author

Leon Jaworski is a partner in a Houston law firm. After graduation from Baylor University, with a Bachelor of Laws degree, and from George Washington University, with a Master of Laws degree, he followed a legal career until World War II, at which time he took a leave of absence from his law firm to serve as a member of the Army's Judge Advocate General's Department.

During the highly secret military trials of German POW's held in this country during the war, Colonel Jaworski, serving as Trial Judge Advocate, prosecuted the case for the U. S. Government. Following the close of hostilities in the European Theatre, he became Chief of the War Crimes Trials Section with headquarters in Germany. Colonel Jaworski's work here is best summarized in the citation accompanying the Legion of Merit awarded him by the Government at the end of his service in Europe:

"Colonel Jaworski was outstandingly successful in coping with the myriad problems involved in exploring entirely new fields in the realm of international law. He not only planned the successful prosecution of, but was the chief prosecutor in two momentous trials of war criminals, and he played a vital part in the development of the Dachau Concentration Camp case. Colonel Jaworski's legal skill, his determination, and exceptional devotion to duty reflect the highest credit upon him and the armed forces of the United States."

Mr. Jaworski is past President of the Houston Chapter of Commerce, the Houston Chapter of the American Chamber of Commerce, the Houston Chapter of the American Red Cross and the Houston Rotary Club. He is presently Chairman of the Joint Administrative Committee of the Texas Medical Center and Baylor College of Medicine, and is Trustee for the United Fund, R. D. Anderson Foundation, Texas Institute of Rehabilitation and Research, and numerous other civic and charitable organizations. He has held, and presently holds, positions of leadership and honor in several professional organizations. He is an Elder in the First Presbyterian Church of Houston. One of the finest tributes to his efforts on the behalf of others came recently when he was selected by the Houston Chapter of the National Council of Christians and Jews, which he had served as President Chairman, as the honoree for the Annual Brotherhood Award given by that organization.
