After The Shock:

After Shock - A Memoir Margo Bouer, 2000-08 This is the story of an adolescent girl's survival following electric shock treatments to enforce compliance In a stark narrative the girl recounts dysfunctional family dominance that forces her to escape further brain damage death or suicide The story moves through her experiences as a child in an adult psychiatric hospital where the patient staff differences are often blurred When disowned and disinherited by her dysfunctional family she moves into adulthood assumes a new identity acquires and then loses a surrogate family through cancer and becomes a psychiatric professional nurse and ultimately achieves a Ph D in psychotherapy Her professional life involved patient care psychiatric training for psychiatrists and nurses psychoanalysis and sexual abuse by her own therapist But there was always a need to cover up her early history and the daunting implications of possible brain damage from her early electric shock She married a gentle physician and with her own motherhood found it imperative to go back to the memories and losses for a reconciliation with her past through successful treatment The story is poignant often funny often gritty and always compelling

After Shock Kent Annan, 2010-12-14 In the wake of a historic earthquake in the fragile country of Haiti Kent Annan considers suffering as a problem for faith Along the way he discovers that he is not alone that from the psalmists of old to our neighbors today people have followed life to the edge of meaning and have heard God even there calling for honest faith
