After Images Of The City:

Imagining New York City Christoph Lindner, 2015 Using examples from architecture film literature and the visual arts Imagining New York City considers how and why certain city spaces the skyline the sidewalk the slum and the subway have come to emblemize key aspects of the modern urban condition

Afterimages Carrie E. Karegeannes, 2005-06 Afterimages is a dream ss lingering reflection captured by the poetry and photography of Carrie and Peter Karegeannes It captures time a brief moment in the life of two Americans who in 1949 stepped into a life of art literature and adventure Walk through Paris experience the spirit of a city rising from the rubble of war share the living of a dream

Obsession, Aesthetics, and the Iberian City Benjamin Fraser, 2022-01-17 Although many depictions of the city in prose poetry and visual art can be found dating from earlier periods in human history Obsession Aesthetics and the Iberian City emphasizes a particular phase in urban development This is the quintessentially modern city that comes into being in the nineteenth century In social terms this nineteenth century city is the product of a specialist class of planners engaged in what urban theorist Henri Lefebvre has called the bourgeois science of modern urbanism One thinks first of the large scale and the wide boulevards of Baron Georges von Haussmann s Paris or the geometrical planning vision of Ildefons Cerd s Barcelona The modern science of urban design famously inaugurates a new way of thinking the city urban modernity is now defined by the triumph of exchange value over use value and the lived city is eclipsed by the planned city as it is envisioned by capitalists builders and speculators Thus urban plans architecture literary prose and poetry documentary cinema and fiction film and comics art serve as windows into our modern obsession with urban aesthetics This book investigates the social relationships implied in our urban modernity by concentrating on four cities that are in broad strokes representative of the cultural and linguistic heterogeneity of the Iberian peninsula Each chapter introduces but moves well beyond an identifiable urban area in a given city noting the cultural obsession implicit in its reconstruction as well as the role of obsession in its artistic representation of the urban environment These areas are Barcelona s Eixample district Madrid s Linear City Lisbon s central Baixa area and Bilbao s Seven Streets or Zazpikaleak The theme of obsession which as explored is synonymous with the concept of partial madness provides a point of departure for understanding the interconnection of both urbanistic and artistic discourses

After-Images of the City Joan Ramon Resina, Dieter Ingenschay, 2018-08-06 Criticism on the textual and iconographic construction of the city is extensive yet the problem of historical change in representations of the urban has received little attention Believing traditional accounts are limited by their reflection of a specific historical moment Joan Ramon Resina and Dieter Ingenschay focus by contrast on transition In essays written for this volume scholars of literary and visual studies the history of architecture cultural theory and urban geography explore the ways perceptual or conceptual paradigms of the city supersede or replace others while at the same time retaining the after image of what went before The writers touch on a wide variety of issues related to contemporary urban cultures as they journey through cities including

New York Barcelona Madrid Paris Tijuana Berlin and London Drawing on the work of Roland Barthes Walter Benjamin Camilo Jos Cela Honor de Balzac and Alfred Stieglitz their approach is broadly cultural rather than technical After Images of the City takes into account the intrinsic instability of the image and reveals that representations of the modern metropolis cannot be fixed in time and history City School Expenditures George Drayton Strayer,1905 Kadzban v.
