which has yet to be fully explored in the International Relations field In so doing the book illuminates why when and how each organization restructures its role function and influence Using case studies of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS and the Organization of African Unity OAU African Union AU it also sheds light on similarities and differences in institutional change between regional security institutions

After the Cold War Keith Philip Lepor, 2010-07-05 The end of the Cold War between the United States and the former Soviet Union reassured people around the world who had lived in fear of a nuclear confrontation between the superpowers Yet the early euphoria over peace dividends and a new world order was premature Conflicts within and between nation states are springing up around the globe challenging world leaders and ordinary citizens to find peaceful means for national group and individual self determination In this book of specially commissioned essays twenty world leaders assess the possibilities and perils of the new strategic political and economic interrelationships that are emerging around the world They tackle such fundamental questions as What is the future of the international system as we approach the twenty first century What will be the fate of disintegrating nation states and how will the international community respond Has the nation state outlived its usefulness Are we beginning to witness the complete breakdown of the international system The contributors are Ali Alatas Indonesia Tariq Aziz Iraq James A Baker III United States Benazir Bhutto Pakistan Boutros Boutros Ghali United Nations Fernando Henrique Cardoso Brazil Osama El Baz Egypt Eduardo Frei Chile Alberto Fujimori Peru Rachid Ghannouchi eminent Islamic thinker Mikhail Sergeyevich Gorbachev Russian Federation Kamal Kharrazi Iran Andrei Kozyrev Russian Federation Leonid Kuchma Ukraine Nelson Mandela South Africa Nursultan Nazarbayev Kazakhstan Olusegun Obasanjo Nigeria Muammar El Qadhafi Libya Fidel Ramos Philippines Shri P V Narasimha Rao India

USA, India, Africa During and After the Cold War Godfrey Okoth, 2010-12-29 The Cold War period witnessed competition from political economic ideological diplomatic military and social dimensions between the United States of America USA and the then Union of Soviet Socialist Republics USSR In the superpower rivalries India and Africa were adversely affected in many ways The situation did not change for the better in the post Cold War period which has witnessed the domination of the world by the US and its allies the Group of Eight G 8 industrialised countries This domination has been characterised by the process of Americanization of the worlds otherwise termed globalisation in virtually all spheres of life USA India Africa During and After the Cold War demonstrates that both the United States and The Soviet Union used African States India and other Third World countries for their own geopolitical considerations that the foreign policy and foreign relations of the US were meant to subject Africa and India to the dictates of US imperialism The book assesses the impact of the Cold War and the post Cold War order on Africa India and the entire world and argues that the Non Aligned Movement is still relevant to the Third World countries despite the demise of the Cold War The book analyses issues from the African point of view as opposed to hitherto Western view points but provides a balanced appreciation of the complex forces that shape foreign policies and foreign relations globally It is a valuable contribution to modern diplomatic history and targets university students researchers foreign affairs ministries and practising diplomats
