After The Noise Of Saigon:

After the Noise of Saigon Walter McDonald, 1988 Historical Memory and Representations of the Vietnam War Walter L. Hixson, 2000 First Published in 2000 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Waltz He was Born for Andrew Hudgins, Janice Whittington, 2002 Texas Poet Laureate Walt McDonald has published more than eighteen volumes of poetry A poet of the landscape of war and flying of people just working hard McDonald is master of the vital image and sound And his work invites others to define the elements that delight and fascinate Each contributor herein has made his own trek to McDonald s harsh landscapes of arroyos and hardscrabble his skies filled with joy and terrors those night sweats of pilots Here in the territory Walt McDonald has claimed these writers have found gold Book jacket Radical Visions Vicente F. Gotera, 1994 Although poets have written about warfare since at least the time of Homer the Vietnam war has struck many observers as being immune to the interpretations of poetry and myth Lyric poetry of a traditional kind writes one critic has proved inappropriate to communicate the character of the Vietnam war its remoteness its jargonized recapitulations its seeming imperviousness to aesthetics Nonetheless the past two decades have seen an unprecedented outpouring of poetry that seeks to describe and come to terms with that bitterly divisive conflict In Radical Visions Vince Gotera argues that poetry written by Vietnam veterans underlines the failure of traditional American myths to help Americans understand the war and its aftermath The book blends sociohistorical commentary with close readings of individual works by such poets as Michael Casey Walter McDonald and W D Ehrhart In the book s first section The Nam Gotera examines several key mythic structures the Wild West a violent extension of the mythic virgin land the machine in the garden the city on the hill regeneration through violence all of which helped delude Americans about Vietnam and the war being fought there In the second part The World Gotera shows how another myth the American Adam as an exemplar of ahistorical innocence proved unusable for returning veterans attempting to readjust to American life In addition to exposing these failed myths Gotera argues the poetry by Vietnam veterans reflects an effort to construct new myths most notably that of the warrior against war an oxymoronic structure arising from the difficulties faced by returning veterans In the book s final chapters Gotera examines the work of Bruce Weigl and Yusef Komunyakaa two poets whom the author considers most successful at portraying the moral absurdity of the Vietnam war without sacrificing lyrical aesthetics The first comprehensive study devoted exclusively to poetry by Vietnam veterans Radical Visions argues that this body of writing registers an important advance in the aesthetics and poetics of war literature and offers a cogent antiwar statement rooted in personal experience Masterplots II. Philip K. Jason, Tracy Irons-Georges, 2002 Comprehensive coverage of the most commonly studied poems written in or translated into English Acts and Shadows Philip K. Jason, 2000 The imaginative literature of the Vietnam War participates both overtly and covertly in a struggle for national memory First generation Vietnam War literature focusing on representations of combat and life in the battlefield strove to give testimony to write history Later writings in their range of genre and style investigate and interrogate the very meaning of war To reflect these two stages Philip Jason divides his newest book of literary criticism into two sections acts and shadows In Acts Jason provides formal and cultural readings of combat narratives by such authors as James Webb Larry Heinemann and Joe Haldeman and explores the meaning of authenticity as applied to Vietnam War texts Shadows looks both forward and backward from the combat zone challenging the parameters of what we define as Vietnam War literature Critical Survey of Poetry Philip K. Jason,2003 Presents alphabetized profiles of nearly seven hundred significant poets from around the world providing biographies primary and secondary bibliographies and analysis of their works Faith is a Radical Master Walter McDonald,2005
