Aftermath Of Partition In South Asia:

The Aftermath of Partition in South Asia Gyanesh Kudaisya, Tan Tai Yong, 2004-03 The Aftermath of Partition in South Asia draws upon new theoretical insights and fresh bodies of data to historically reappraise partition in the light of its long aftermath The Long History of Partition in Bengal Rituparna Roy, Jayanta Sengupta, Sekhar Bandyopadhyay, 2024-02-13 This book focuses on the aftermath of the 1947 Partition of India It considers the long aftermath and afterlives of Partition afresh from a wide and inclusive range of perspectives and studies the specificities of the history of violence and migration and their memories in the Bengal region The chapters in the volume range from the administrative consequences of partition to public policies on refugee settlement life stories of refugees in camps and colonies and literary and celluloid representations of Partition It also probes questions of memory identity and the memorialization of events Eclectic in its theoretical orientation and methodology this book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of partition history colonialism refugee studies Indian history South Asian history migration studies and modern history in general

Partition as Border-Making Sayeed Ferdous, 2021-09-30 This book critically analyzes the Partition experiences from East Bengal in 1947 and its prolonged aftermath leading to the creation of Bangladesh in 1971 It looks at how newly emerged borderlands at the time of Partition affected lives and triggered prolonged consequences for the people living in East Bengal Bangladesh The author brings to the fore unheard voices and unexplored narratives especially those relating the experience of different groups of Muslims in the midst of the falling apart of the unified Muslim identity Drawing on in depth ethnographic research and archival resources the volume analyzes various themes such as partition literature local narratives of border making smuggling border violence refugees identity conflicts border crossing and experiences of the Bihari Muslims and the Hindus of East Pakistan among others A unique study in border making this book will be an essential read for scholars and researchers of history South Asian history Partition studies oral history anthropology political history refugee studies minority studies political science and borderland studies Refugees and the End of Empire P. Panayi, P. Virdee, 2011-05-17 An examination of the relationship between imperial collapse the emergence of successor nationalism the exclusion of ethnic groups and the refugee experience Written by both established authorities and younger scholars this book offers a unique international comparative approach to the study of refugees at the end of empire The School at Ajmeri Gate Azra Razzack, Atiab Siddiqui, 2022-08-30 This is a story of a school in the walled city of Old Delhi the Anglo Arabic Senior Secondary School The school has its origins in Madrasa Ghaziuddin established in 1692 Using archival data and personal accounts this book offers a fascinating insight into an institution of historic importance Life After Partition Sarah F. D. Ansari, 2005 By the 1990s ethnic politics had come to dominate Sindh with calls for Karachi to become a fifth province in its right Life After Partition examines the historical background to these developments by focusing on events in the province in the years immediately following partition when migrants from India and local people in Sindh found themselves living alongside each other in the newly created state of Pakistan How far they retained distinctive notions of community and identity and what its impact was on processes of accommodation and integration forms the main focus of this study of life in Sindh between 1947 and 1962 Karachi Laurent Gayer,2014 Argues that within the seemingly chaotic malaise of Karachi s politics a form of manageable violence exists on which the functioning of the city is based Asian Journal of Social Science ,2005 Refugee Voices in Modern Global History Peter Gatrell,Katarzyna Nowak,Lauren Banko,Anindita Ghoshal,2025-03-31 Across modern history refugees have articulated their experiences and wishes against the backdrop of mass displacement brought about by world wars civil war revolution population exchange decolonisation and state formation Men and women displaced in different sites from different backgrounds and at different times have played for high stakes they deliberated about what to say and to whom and they sought expected and effected a response Refugee Voices in Modern Global History places refugees at the centre of modern history It demonstrates how ordinary refugees understood their experiences of displacement and engaged with institutions that sought solutions to their predicament Ranging widely across global contexts to establish what refugees had to say and to whom it shows them to have consistently been purposeful actors making it possible to transcend conventional and hackneyed depictions of crisis By adopting the term refugeedom the authors show how the voices and perspectives of refugees can be incorporated alongside the power dynamics associated with the multiple incarnations of the refugee regime that managed refugees and articulated solutions to their predicament Extensive archival research across three continents makes it possible to explain in comparative terms the significance attached to the encounters between refugees and officials in modern Europe South Asia the Middle East East Asia and sub Saharan Africa The result is an original and in depth study of the contrasting responses of refugees to displacement and to the arrangements made on their behalf at a series of critical junctures in the past India International Centre Quarterly India International Centre,2001 The Book Review ,2006 Proceedings - Indian History Congress Indian History Congress,2003 Journal of the United Service Institution of India United Service Institution of India,2001 Journal of the Punjab University Historical Society ,2016 Kashmir in the Aftermath of Partition Shahla Hussain,2021-06-10 Kashmir remains one of the world s most militarized areas of dispute having been in the grips of an armed insurgency against India since the late 1980s In existing scholarship ideas of territoriality state sovereignty and national security have dominated the discourses on the Kashmir conflict This book in contrast places Kashmir and Kashmiris at the center of historical debate and investigates a broad range of sources to illuminate a century of political players and social structures on both sides of divided Kashmir and in the wider Kashmiri diaspora In the process it broadens the contours of Kashmir s postcolonial and resistance history complicates the meaning of Kashmiri identity and reveals Kashmiris myriad imaginings of freedom It asserts that Kashmir has emerged as a political imaginary in postcolonial era a vision that grounds Kashmiris in their negotiations for rights not only in India and Pakistan but also in global political spaces Proceedings

Indian History Congress,2003 The Radical Humanist ,2002 Islam in South Asia: Soundings on partition and its aftermath Mushirul Hasan,2008 Southeast Asian Journal of Social Science ,1999 Seminar ,1996
