Against History Against State Counterperspectives From The Margins:

Against History, Against State Shail Mayaram, 2003 Reassessing conventional South Asian historiography from a subaltern perspective Against History Against State examines how conceptions of history and memory clash For nearly a millennium the Meos of northwest India one of the largest Muslim populations in South Asia endured a succession of brutally oppressive regimes from the Arab conquest in the eighth century through the establishment of the Turkish Sultanate the Mughal Empire the regional Rajput kingdoms and the era of British imperialism Unwilling to abandon their ethnic and religious identity the Meos developed an independent oral tradition that enabled them to challenge state formation for centuries By creating an alternate record of their past through songs and stories the Meos were able to successfully retain a degree of cultural sovereignty But their quest for autonomy was stigmatized even criminalized while histories written by the literate ruling elite transformed ethnic prejudice into historical fact This pioneering study based on a decade of intensive research explores the Meo community through their oral tradition revealing sophisticated modes of collective memory and self governance Against History Against State reveals the remarkable complexity and resilience of a transgressive culture that has survived on the margins of Hinduism and Islam

The Demands of Recognition Townsend Middleton, 2015-10-21

Since the British colonial period anthropology has been central to policy in India But today while the Indian state continues to use ethnography to govern those who were the objects of study are harnessing disciplinary knowledge to redefine their communities achieve greater prosperity and secure political rights In this groundbreaking study Townsend Middleton tracks these newfound lives of anthropology Offering simultaneous ethnographies of the people of Darjeeling s quest for tribal status and the government anthropologists handling their claims Middleton exposes how minorities are and are not recognized for affirmative action and autonomy We encounter communities putting on elaborate spectacles of sacrifice exorcism bows and arrows and blood drinking to prove their primitiveness and backwardness Conversely we see government anthropologists struggle for the ethnographic truth as communities increasingly turn academic paradigms back upon the state The Demands of Recognition offers a compelling look at the escalating politics of tribal recognition in India At once ethnographic and historical it chronicles how multicultural governance has motivated the people of Darjeeling to ethnologically redefine themselves from Gorkha to tribal and back But as these communities now know not all forms of difference are legible in the eyes of the state The Gorkhas search for recognition has only amplified these communities anxieties about who they are and who they must be if they are to attain the rights autonomy and belonging they desire

Indigeneity on the Move Eva Gerharz, Nasir Uddin, Pradeep Chakkarath, 2017-12-29 Indigeneity has become a prominent yet contested concept in national and international politics as well as within the social sciences This edited volume draws from authors representing different disciplines and perspectives exploring the dependence of indigeneity on varying sociopolitical contexts actors and discourses with the ultimate goal of investigating the concept s scientific and political potential The SAGE Handbook of Identities Margaret Wetherell, Chandra Talpade Mohanty, 2010-03-23 Overall its breaking of disciplinary isolation enhancing of mutual understanding and laying out of a transdisciplinary platform makes this Handbook a milestone in identity studies Sociology Increasingly identities are the site for interdisciplinary initiatives and identity research is at the heart of many transdisciplinary research centres around the world No single social science discipline owns identity research which makes it a difficult topic to categorize The SAGE Handbook of Identities systematizes this complex field by incorporating its interdisciplinary character to provide a comprehensive overview of its themes in contemporary research while still acknowledging the historical and philosophical significance of the concept of identity Drawing on a global scholarship the Handbook has four parts Frameworks presents the main theoretical and methodological perspectives in identities research Formations covers the major formative forces for identities such as culture globalisation migratory patterns biology and so on Categories reviews research on the core social categories central to identity such as ethnicity gender sexuality disability and intersections between these Sites and Context develops a series of case studies of crucial sites and contexts where identity is at stake such as social movements relationships work places and citizenship

Cambodia's Muslims and the Malay World Philipp Bruckmayr, 2019-03-25 In this monograph Philipp Bruckmayr examines the development of Cambodia's Muslim minority from the mid 19th to the 21st century During this period Cambodia's Cham and Chvea Muslims established strong relationships with Malay centers of Islamic learning in Patani Kelantan and Mecca During the 1970s to the early 1990s these longstanding relationships came to a sudden halt due to civil war and the systematic Khmer Rouge repression Since the 1990s ties to the Malay world have been revived and new Islamic currents including Salafism and Tablighism have left their mark on contemporary Cambodian Islam Bruckmayr traces how these dynamics resulted inter alia in a history of local Islamic factionalism culminating in the eventual state recognition of two separate Islamic congregations in the late 1990s SpaceTime of the Imperial Holt Meyer, Susanne Rau, Katharina Waldner, 2016-11-07 This volume works through spatio temporal concepts to be found in imperial practices and their representations in a wide range of media The individual cases investigated in the volume cover a broad spectrum of historical periods from ancient times up to the present Well known international scholars treat special cases of the topic using cutting edge theory and approaches stemming from historical cartographic religious literary media studies as well as ethnography

Sovereign Anxiety Javed Iqbal Wani, 2023-11-16 Studies sovereignty and law and argues that public order laws are an expression of sovereign anxiety Slavery and South Asian History Indrani Chatterjee, Richard M. Eaton, 2006-10-12 Despite its pervasive presence in the South Asian past slavery is largely overlooked in the region's historiography in part because the forms of bondage in question did not always fit models based on plantation slavery in the Atlantic world This important volume will contribute to a rethinking of slavery in world history and even the category of slavery itself Most slaves in South Asia were not agricultural laborers but military or domestic workers and the latter were overwhelmingly women and children

Individuals might become slaves at birth or through capture sale by relatives indenture or as a result of accusations of criminality or inappropriate sexual behavior For centuries trade in slaves linked South Asia with Africa the Middle East and Central Asia The contributors to this collection of original essays describe a wide range of sites and contexts covering more than a thousand years foregrounding the life stories of individual slaves wherever possible Pub desc
