Snider,2018-01-20 Excerpt from Agamemnon's Daughter An Epopee The city had a hill within its wall And still it may be seen a towering crest Which from its tireless watch looked down on all At times like war's fierce eagle from its nest At times the hilltop heaved as if the breast It rose in swift response to tender eyes With gentle breath of poesy caressed To day it swells to soft blue Grecian skies Around the maiden city's swelling breast Was drawn a wall a moveless rocky band About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works      Catalogue of the Library of Association, and the Autograph Collection of E.C. play in what courses of action both states and individuals undertook Specific attention is paid in this volume not only to the ancient written evidence but to that of inscriptions and papyri with emphasis placed on the iconography of Greek divination
