Agatha Moudios Son:

Agatha Moudio's Son, 1971 Le fils d'Agatha Moudio Francis Bebey, 1978 Toward the Decolonization of the Europhone African Novel Peter Wuteh Vakunta, 2023-09-30 Toward the Decolonization of the Europhone African Novel is a treatise on the problematics of language choice in Europhone African literature Vakunta's research is rooted in the notion that the postcolonial African fiction writer is at a crossroads of languages groping for linguistic re-orientation Using the prose of fiction of Patrice Nganang Ahmadou Kourouma Mercedes Fouda Nazi Boni and Gabriel K Fonkou as corpus he contends that postcolonial African fiction is an offshoot of a linguistic tinkering process that enables writers to tinker with the language of the ex-colonizer in a deliberate attempt to divest indigenous writing of its hegemonic vestiges Picked-Up Pieces John Updike, 2013-01-15 In John Updike's second collection of assorted prose he comes into his own as a book reviewer most of the pieces picked up here were first published in The New Yorker in the 1960s and early 70s If one word could sum up the young critic's approach to books and their authors it would be generosity Better to praise and share he says in his Foreword than to blame and ban And so he follows his enthusiasms which prove both deserving and infectious Kierkegaard Proust Joyce Dostoevsky and Hamsun among the classics Borges Nabokov Grass Bellow Cheever and Jong among the contemporaries Here too are meditations on Satan and cemeteries travel essays on London and Anguilla three very early golf dreams and one big interview Picked Up Pieces is a glittering treasury for every reader who likes life books wit and John Updike A Long Way from Douala Max Lobe, 2021-10-26 Bursting with local color this hilarious heartwarming coming-of-age tale follows two friends on a raucous journey across Cameroon as they grapple with grief sexuality and dreams of leaving After their father's sudden death Jean's older brother Roger decides he's had enough of their abusive mother and their city He runs away to try his luck crossing illegally into Europe in the hope of becoming a soccer star abroad When no news of him reaches the family and the police declare that finding some feckless brat isn't worth their time Jean feels he has to act Aiming to catch up with Roger before he gets to the Nigerian border Jean enlists the help of the older Simon a close neighborhood friend and the two set out on the road Through a series of joyful sparky vignettes Cameroon life is revealed in all its ups and downs Max Lobe insightfully touches on grave complex issues such as the violence Boko Haram has inflicted on the region yet still recounts events with remarkable humor and levity Indigenization of Language in the African Francophone Novel Peter W. Vakunta, 2011 Indigenization of Language in the African Francophone Novel A New Literary Canon discusses the question of indigenization in the African Francophone novel Analyzing the prose narratives of Nazi Boni Ahmadou Kourouma and Patrice Nganang this book contends that African literature written in European languages is primarily a creative translation process Recourse to European languages as a medium of expressing African imagination worldview and cultures in fictional writing poses problems of intelligibility Developed to express and reflect Western worldviews and sensibilities European languages are employed by African writers to convey messages that seem to be at variance with European imagination These writers find themselves writing in languages they wish to subvert through the technique of literary indigenization The significance of this study resides in its raising awareness to the hurdles that literary creativity in a polyglossic context may present to readers and translators This book provides answers to intriguing questions centering on the problematic of translation in contemporary African literature It is a contribution to current research aimed at unraveling the conundrum surrounding the language question in African Europhone fiction particularly the cultural functions of translation in literature Potential translation problems have to be addressed in order to make African literature written in European languages intelligible to global readership With the advent of globalization transcultural communication has become an activity of enormous importance to the international community It is a subject of great interest to translators linguists language instructors and literary theorists
