Age Of Consent Victorian Prostitution And Its Enemies:

The Age of Consent Michael Pearson,1972 The Age of Consent: Victorian Prostitution and Its Enemies Michael Pearson,1972 Victorian society divided by rigid class barriers obsessed with a puritan conscience in the midst of industrialisation and poverty was in 1885 confronted by a sustained attack on the organisers of prostitution in Britain and continental Europe A double standard of morality prevailed and prostitution was on the whole condoned by the establishment Josephine Butler rejected the double standard and demanded continence from both sexes The Salvation Army Methodists and the Quakers joined in and William Stead in the influential Pall Mall Gazette conducted an exposé of London prostitution and the whole slave traffic to the continent In this lively and perceptive study Michael Pearson describes one of the seamier sides of Victorian life the brothels the characters who frequented or ran them corrupt policemen indifferent politicians Here also is the story of the origins of the Women's Liberation Movement of the crusading Booth family and of a skilful but unscrupulous journalist who vigorously campaigned for legal reform 4e de couv

Common Prostitutes and Ordinary Citizens J. Laite,2011-12-02 Between 1885 and 1960 laws and policies designed to repress prostitution dramatically shaped London's commercial sex industry This book examines how laws translated into street level reality explores how women who sold sex experienced criminalization and charts the complex dimensions of the underground sexual economy in the modern metropolis

The Armstrong Girl Cathy Le Feuvre,2015-06-19 In 1885 Victorian England was scandalized by a court case that lifted the veil on prostitution and the sex trade In the Old Bailey dock stood W T Stead the editor of the Pall Mall Gazette which had recently published a series of articles on the sex trade Rebecca Jarrett a reformed brothel keeper and the second in command of The Salvation Army Bramwell Booth They were accused of abducting a thirteen year old girl Eliza Armstrong apparently buying her for the purpose of prostitution In fact they had done this as a sensational exposé of the trade in young girls The scandal triggered a massive petition and ultimately resulted in the raising of the British age of consent from thirteen to sixteen Today human trafficking is once again making world headlines as are recent calls to lower the age of consent Eliza's story is a thrilling account of what can be achieved by those brave enough to believe that change is not only possible but has to come

Genders 21 Carol Siegel,Ann M. Kibbey,1995-07 Forming and Reforming Identity exposes the historical sites of identity formation and seeks to define the mechanisms of modern day gender ideologies Illuminating the power of the family and state in shaping gender identities the book also examines the constitution of these identities Each chapter reveals the complexities and contradictions that inevitably accompany the formation of any new category of identity whether they are deliberately restrictive or intended as a reformation of the old The volume moves as gender construction does across a field of different media novels plays teleplays films official documents political theory and advertisements Four sections REMOLDING WOMAN REBELLING MAN HOMEMADE IDENTITIES and FEMINISMS THAT MAKE A DIFFERENCE address such subjects as the representation of American women in the 1950s nationalism and respectable sexuality in India women Hollywood cinema and World War II compulsory heterophobia and the televising of AIDS Colonial masculinity Mrinalini Sinha, 2017-03-01 This book is about the processes and practices through which two differently positioned elites among the colonisers and the colonised were constituted respectively as the manly Englishman and the effeminate Bengali It argues that the emerging dynamics between colonial and nationalist politics in the 1880s and 1890s in India is best captured in the logic of colonial masculinity The figures of the manly Englishman and the effeminate Bengali were thus constituted in relation to colonial Indian society as well as to some aspects of late nineteenth century British society These aspects of late nineteenth century British society are the emergence of the New Woman the remaking of the working class the legacy of internal colonialism and the anti feminist backlash of the 1880s and 1890s A sustained focus on the imperial constitution of colonial masculinity therefore serves also to refine the standard historical scholarship on nineteenth century British masculinity The book traces the impact of colonial masculinity in four specific controversies the white mutiny against the Ilbert Bill in 1883 the official government response to the Native Volunteer movement in 1885 the recommendations of the Public Service Commission of 1886 and the Indian opposition to the Age of Consent Bill in 1891 In this book the author situates the analysis very specifically in the context of an imperial social formation In doing so the author examines colonial masculinity not only in the context of social forces within India but also as framed by and framing political economic and ideological shifts in Britain British Women's History, 1996 This is one of a series of bibliographical guides designed to meet the needs of undergraduates postgraduates and their teachers in universities and colleges of further education All volumes in the series share a number of common characteristics They are selective manageable in size and include those books and articles which are considered most important and useful All are edited by practising teachers of the subject in question and are based on their experience of the needs of students The arrangement combines chronological with thematic divisions Most of the items listed receive some descriptive comment Red Light, Blue Light Karen Sharpe, 2017-07-05 Based on extensive interviews with forty women working as prostitutes Red Light Blue Light examines a variety of personal developmental experiences and socio situational factors that can combine to make prostitution neither an inevitable nor inescapable circumstance but a rational occupational choice This book attempts to analyze why women enter the world of prostitution how the skills and values of the business are transmitted and how the individuals themselves subjectively define perceive and rationalise their activity As opposed to the traditional stereotypical depiction of prostitutes as hopeless downtrodden victims of male exploitation living lives of poverty misery and wretchedness the picture that emerges in this study is of an independent occupational group organizing and controlling the business in which they work The book also presents a profile of clients of prostitutes and discusses the role of the police Written in accessible style the resulting monograph presents a fascinating unique and comprehensive account of street prostitution in a northern city The Tender Passion Peter Gay, 1999 The Tender Passion looks at the Victorian middle classes ideal and real notions of love

Whores in History Nickie Roberts,1993 Roberts vivid challenging and impressively researched defense of the unrepentant whore whom she regards as the most maligned woman in history tells the story of the prostitute with hundreds of anecdotes of bawdy house and brothel life Her arguments will engage male experts and feminist sisters alike Illustrations

State Regulation of Prostitution in Nineteenth Century France David Wright,1979 Subject Index of Modern Books Acquired British Library,1971 The Fallen Angel Sally Mitchell,1981 This book discusses the figure of the unchaste woman in a wide range of fiction written between 1835 and 1880 serious novels by Dickens Mrs Gaskell Meredith and George Eliot popular novels that provided light reading for middle class women including books by Dinah Craik Rhoda Broughton and Ouida sensational fiction propaganda for social reform and stories in cheap periodicals such as the Family Herald and the London Journal which reached a different and far wider audience than either serious or popular novels

Masculinity and Control Antony E. Simpson,1994 New Society ,1972 Sex, Drugs, Death and the Law David A. J. Richards,1982 Among the most commonly argued legal questions are those involving victimless crimes consensual adult sexual relations including homosexuality and prostitution the use of drugs and the right to die How can they be distinguished from proper crimes and how can we as citizens judge the complex moral and legal issues that such questions entail David Richards a teacher of law in the areas of constitutional and criminal law and a moral and legal philosopher concerned with the investigation of legal concepts applies an interdisciplinary approach to the question of overcriminalization he draws on legal and philosophical arguments and links the subject to history psychology social science and literature To demonstrate how gross and unjust overcriminalization has developed Professor Richards explores basic assumptions that often underlie the common American sense of proper criminalization Charles Lowder and the Ritualist Movement Lida E. Ellsworth,1982 Elizabeth Gaskell's Mary Barton and Ruth Monica Correa Fryckstedt,1982 Sexuality and Sexual Behavior Nancy F. Cott,1993 Part of a fully indexed 20 volume collection which gathers together significant research contributions on the social religious and political history of women in the United States from colonial times to the 1990s
