Vermeer's Family Secrets Benjamin Binstock, 2013-03-07 Johannes Vermeer one of the greatest Dutch painters and for some the single greatest painter of all produced a remarkably small corpus of work In Vermeer's Family Secrets Benjamin Binstock revolutionizes how we think about Vermeer's work and life Vermeer The Sphinx of Delft is famously a mystery in art despite the common claim that little is known of his biography there is actually an abundance of fascinating information about Vermeer's life that Binstock brings to bear on Vermeer's art for the first time he also offers new interpretations of several key documents pertaining to Vermeer that have been misunderstood Lavishly illustrated with more than 180 black and white images and more than sixty color plates the book also includes a remarkable color two page spread that presents the entirety of Vermeer's oeuvre arranged in chronological order in 1/20 scale demonstrating his gradual formal and conceptual development No book on Vermeer has ever done this kind of visual comparison of his complete output Like Poe's purloined letter Vermeer's secrets are sometimes out in the open where everyone can see them Benjamin Binstock shows us where to look Piecing together evidence the tools of art history and his own intuitive skills he gives us for the first time a history of Vermeer's work in light of Vermeer's life On almost every page of Vermeer's Family Secrets there is a perception or an adjustment that rethinks what we know about Vermeer his oeuvre Dutch painting and Western Art Perhaps the most arresting revelation of Vermeer's Family Secrets is the final one in response to inconsistencies in technique materials and artistic level Binstock posits that several of the paintings accepted as canonical works by Vermeer are in fact not by Vermeer at all but by his eldest daughter Maria How he argues this is one of the book's many pleasures

Class Distinctions Ronni Baer, Henk F. K. van Nierop, Marieke de Winkel, Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art, 2015 The Dutch Republic in the seventeenth century was home to one of the greatest flowerings of painting in the history of Western art Freed from the constraints of royal and church patronage artists created a rich outpouring of naturalistic portraits genre scenes and landscapes that circulated through a newly open market to patrons and customers at every level of Dutch society Their closely observed details of everyday life offer a wealth of information about the possessions activities and circumstances that distinguished members of social classes from the nobility to the urban poor The dazzling array of paintings gathered here from artists such as Frans Hals Jan Steen and Gerrit Dou as well as Rembrandt and Vermeer illuminated by essays by leading specialists invite us to explore a vibrant early modern society and its reflection in a golden age of brilliant painting

Wilhelm Bode and the Art Market, 2022-12-05 The professional career and success of Wilhelm Bode 1845 1929 relied on the business of connoisseurship Like other contemporary art historians involved in the commerce of art he was entangled in the reciprocal dynamics and interdependencies of the nascent discipline of art history connoisseurship and the art trade The volume introduces new material and a fresh perspective on Bode s strategic participation in the Western art market exposing the particular consequences of these entanglements on the birth of the art historical canon and showcasing his complex agency within the art marketplace of the late nineteenth and the early twentieth centuries

Wilhelm von Bode and the American Art Market Michaela Watrelot, 2023-12-19 Based on an extensive and very meticulous study of different archives and the evaluation of original previously unpublished archival material this book highlights the key aspects and trends of the European and American art markets in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries In particular the book focuses on how these markets influenced each other from the viewpoint of one of the most prominent museum directors of this period Wilhelm von Bode 1845 1929 Given the complexity of the topic the book is structured into two parts The first part focuses on Bode s interactions with the German banker and dedicated art collector based in Paris Rudolphe Kann 1845 1905 The second part follows the sale of the Kann Collection to the dealer Joseph Duveen and follows on the relationship between Bode Duveen and the American collectors The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history museum studies and the art market

Rembrandt, Vermeer, and the Gift in Seventeenth-Century Dutch Art Michael Zell, 2025-10-01 Rembrandt Vermeer and the Gift in Seventeenth Century Dutch Art offers a new perspective on the art of the Dutch Golden Age by exploring the interaction between the gift s symbolic economy of reciprocity and obligation and the artistic culture of early modern Holland Gifts of art were pervasive in seventeenth century Europe and many Dutch artists like their counterparts elsewhere embraced gift giving to cultivate relations with patrons art lovers and other members of their social networks Rembrandt also created distinctive works to function within a context of gift exchange and both Rembrandt and Vermeer engaged the ethics of the gift to identify their creative labor as motivated by what contemporaries called a love of art not materialistic gain In the merchant republic s vibrant market for art networks of gift relations and the anti economic rhetoric of the gift mingled with the growing dimension of commerce revealing a unique chapter in the interconnected history of gift giving and art making
