Ageing With Dignity:

Ageing with Dignity in Hong Kong and Asia Vincent Tin Sing Law, Ben Yuk Fai Fong, 2022-09-12 This book advocates the application of holistic and humanistic approaches in elderly care and services to achieve the goal of ageing with dignity in Hong Kong and Asia. It responds to the needs of an increasing ageing population that has to deal with related health needs in long term care, community health and social services particularly for chronic conditions and psychosocial support. The book consists of three sections on policy and development of aged care, holistic and humanistic care for older adults and capacity building for ageing with dignity respectively. Topics include the latest initiatives in aged care, appropriate services and delivery models, lifestyle modification, psychosocial and environmental considerations, professional development, technologies and social capital. The chapters review and discuss these issues within a global context, illustrated by examples from Asian countries underpinned by locally based empirical research. Contributors include academics and practitioners from diversified professional backgrounds that include medicine, nursing, pharmacy, traditional Chinese medicine, dietetics and allied health. The book traverses into territories in the social sciences, life sciences and sports sciences while also touching on areas of business and administration, hospitality, law, public policy and information technology in connection with public health. The contents serve as a topical reference for tertiary studies in ageing and related disciplines such as well-being and are also useful to policymakers, community and public health practitioners, health executives and interns working in areas of policy and practice pertinent to care, development, health delivery models, planning, quality, ethics, better health, promotion, professional training and monitoring for older adults.

Understanding Ageing for Nurses and Therapists Wilfred McSherry, Linda Rykkje, Susan Thornton, 2021-06-08 This volume is a practical resource for all those responsible for caring for older people across health and social care. It provides a comprehensive and holistic approach, helping nurses, therapists and social care professionals to better understand the impact of ageing upon the person and wider society. A unique feature of this text is the focus upon positive ageing and the attempt to dispel and challenge some of the myths, prejudices and negative attitudes that still prevail towards ageing and older people. A key objective of the book is to introduce practitioners to some of the neglected or under-addressed aspects of ageing such as spirituality, sexuality and LGBT. Chapters are written in an engaging and interactive style and where appropriate draw upon case studies and scenarios to maximize engagement, developing competence by informing knowledge, attitudes and skills. The text introduces the practitioner to key dimensions of what it is to be a person, physically, psychologically, socially and spiritually, and how these contribute to the ageing process and can enhance the quality of life of older people. Irrespective of whether one cares for older people in an acute hospital setting or domiciliary home care, this text will be of relevance. The material and content transcend health and social care boundaries, providing valuable contemporary evidence that can inform and shape practice. Above all, this text will encourage reflection, dialogue and engagement with some fundamental aspects of ageing, challenging attitudes, values and behaviour, so that a more positive and balanced insight towards ageing is fostered This book will ensure that self awareness and professional practice are enriched and informed and the practitioner has a holistic understanding of ageing that will enable them to care for older people with compassion dignity and respect Justice for Older People ,2012-01-01 The authors of these papers vary in age nationality and professional background They share a belief that all too often older people are not treated justly or fairly and also a belief that this is particularly true with regard to a proper respect for their dignity as people and a proper allocation of medical and social resources Their papers in various ways give evidence as to what is happening and arguments based on philosophical ethics as to why it is wrong The authors also have a range of proposals backed by argument and evidence and drawing on factual material as well as philosophical argument as to what could be done to improve the situation This is a book for anyone whether themselves elderly looking after an older person professionally involved in working with older people or simply realising that one day they will be old who wants to learn about what is wrong with the present situation and how it might be made better
