Ageing Care Elderly Europe Pr:

Ageing and the Care of Older People in Europe Richard Hugman, 1994-08-23 As the population of all European countries ages rapidly understanding the phenomenon of ageing and social responses to old age has become a vital contemporary issue The diverse ways in which old age is seen across Europe are compared and different forms of care for the needs of older people are examined With the demise of large institutions and increasing demands on families and on domiciliary care the question of inter generational relations is seen as a key element in the future of old age It is argued that much is to be learned from cross national comparisons in developing social responses to old age Who Should Care for the Elderly?

William T. Liu, 2000 This book comprises a collection of refereed and edited papers that originated from an invited conference on East West values in elderly care held in Hong Kong in 1996 Organized under Western or Eastern perspectives the contributions reflect the belief that knowledge in the care giving field has reached a point where comparisons can shed useful insights into not only the differences between cultures but also between the perspectives of the scholars
