Cara Massimina Tim Parks, 2015-10-06 The first Duckworth novel is Better than Silence of the Lambs Macabre fun orchestrated with immaculate precision It s a killer Los Angeles Times Morris Duckworth teaches English to the pampered rich of Verona and Morris is not pleased Living a meager existence in a squalid apartment he regards his privileged students with envy and disdain first wreaking revenge by petty theft and then like all good criminals graduating to grander larceny When one of those students a beautiful but vapid heiress named Massimina falls in love with him Morris can almost smell upward mobility However after the girl s mother much to his chagrin unequivocally forbids her from seeing him he hits upon a perfect scheme he convinces the besotted girl to run off with him then sends ransom notes to her family Following a frightening logic Morris s subversions become deeper and darker Soon events are spiraling with eerie momentum into a nightmare of deception and violence The first novel in what has become the Duckworth in Verona trilogy Cara Massimina is a comic thriller that will leave readers laughing out loud in mortified delight Skyhorse Publishing as well as our Arcade Yucca and Good Books imprints are proud to publish a broad range of books for readers interested in fiction novels novellas political and medical thrillers comedy satire historical fiction romance erotic and love stories mystery classic literature folklore and mythology literary classics including Shakespeare Dumas Wilde Cather and much more While not every title we publish becomes a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller we are committed to books on subjects that are sometimes overlooked and to authors whose work might not otherwise find a home Cara Massimina John

MacDowell, 1990 Cara Massimina Tim Parks, 2006 A V rone Morris Duckworth enseignant d anglais d une trentaine d ann es dispense quelques cours particuliers dans la bonne soci t italienne contre un salaire indigne de la haute opinion qu il a de lui m me Massimina dix sept ans se pr sente comme la chance de sa vie elle l aime et veut l pousser Quand la riche famille le rejette et que la romantique jeune fille lui propose une fugue l id e d une escroquerie parfaite s impose lui Au fil d un thriller malin et insolent qui suit les fuyards travers une Italie estivale envahie de touristes Morris d couvre les tr fonds inqui tants de son me et de son c ur Cara Massimina Tim Parks, 1995 Cara Massamina Tim Parks, 2014-08-13 Bored and broke Morris Duckworth an English teacher in Verona stumbles on a plan for financial salvation to marry Massimina one of his lovelier students And if his intentions are frustrated by a suspicious conservative family is it any fault of his that the girl chooses to elope Obsessed by self advancement and excitement Morris s dreams of blackmail theft and murder plunge him deep into a chilling nightmare of deception and violence The Experience of Expatriate English Language Teaching

David B. Wilson, 2025-05-24 This is a unique applied linguistic study which demonstrates that the history of TEFLers is very different from the history of TEFL Instead of studying theories of language learning and teaching it explores the experience of being a TEFLer through the ages using a wide range of fictional and fictive sources novels plays biographies memoirs essays and poems Part One considers the present and recent past through an analysis of 15 fictional works and five memoirs

Part Two is concerned with the experiences of some historical iconic figures from the world of TEFL beginning with the sixteenth century and ending with figures associated with the British Council and International House Along the way one meets Victorian governesses Berlitz teachers and literary figures from the inter War Golden Age of travel Interposed are some of the experiences of the author garnered during his long and varied career as an expatriate TEFLer "Do You Consider Yourself a Postmodern Author?" Rudolf Freiburg,1999 This book presents a collection of twelve interviews with eminent English contemporary writers held during a period of four years The book allows an illuminating insight into a very lively and thought provoking literary culture stirred not only by recent ideas of postmodernism but also by the manifold issues of nationality culture and gender subjected to permanent redefinitions towards the end of the twentieth century The interviews with Peter Ackroyd John Banville Julian Barnes Alain de Botton Maureen Duffy Tibor Fischer John Fowles Romesh Gunesekera Tim Parks Terry Pratchett Jane Rogers and Adam Thorpe cover topics such as the relationship between writer and public the role of the literary tradition the relevance of contemporary literary theory for the production of literature images of nationality intertextuality changes in the attitude towards language and meaning and the reception of literary texts by critical reviewers and literary critics The Novel Tim Parks,2015-07-16 The Literary Agenda is a series of short polemical monographs about the importance of literature and of reading in the wider world and about the state of literary education inside schools and universities The category of the literary has always been contentious What is clear however is how increasingly it is dismissed or is unrecognised as a way of thinking or an arena for thought It is sceptically challenged from within for example by the sometimes rival claims of cultural history contextualized explanation or media studies It is shaken from without by even greater pressures by economic exigency and the severe social attitudes that can follow from it by technological change that may leave the traditional forms of serious human communication looking merely antiquated For just these reasons this is the right time for renewal to start reinvigorated work into the meaning and value of literary reading The Novel A Survival Skill is the fruit of a lifetime s search for a different more immediate but again systematic and serious way of talking about literature Developed over many years it offers a completely new account of the relationship between a writer his or her work and the reader As such it radically undermines traditional literary criticism and the various criteria used for evaluating a work of fiction Drawing on ideas from systemic psychology Tim Parks suggest that both the content and style of a novelist s work the kind of stories told and the way in which they are told form part of a more general strategy or simply habit of communication that the novelist has learned within his or her family of origin The reader reacts to these in very much the same way he or she would react to the same communicative strategy in a real life encounter different readers reacting differently depending on their own backgrounds and habits of communication Looking at the different value structures that can dominate in any family good evil independence dependence success failure belonging exclusion this book looks at how a number of major writers position themselves within these value structures how this positioning is manifest in their writing and how readers have responded to this depending on their own positioning in the same semantics Thomas Hardy for example a man eager to believe himself courageous but terrified of the consequences of any socially unacceptable behaviour constructs stories which are courageous in their willingness to debate difficult issues but which constantly suggest that any attempt to behave courageously is condemned to disaster Hardy as it were imprisons himself in a world where it is folly to take risks He is thus exceedingly conservative in his life while at the same time able to think of himself as courageous in his writing The Novel A Survival Skill looks at the way different readers in different periods respond to this depending on their own position with regard to fear courage social convention and so on

Translating Style Tim Parks,1998 The aim of the book is to savour the extent to which any text is driven by the language in which it is written even when it departs from standard usage when it seeks to achieve the status of literature

Destiny Tim Parks,1999 Soem three months after returning to England and having at last completed that collection of material that once assembled in a book must serve to transform a respectable career into a monument something so comprehensive and final this was my plan as to be utterly irreftuable I received while standing as chance would have it at the reception desk of the Rembrandt Hotel Knightsbridge the phonecal that informed me of my son s suicide Thus the opening sentence of Tim Park s tenth novel But why on receiving this terrible news does Christopher Burton immediately decide that he must leave his Italian wife of almost thirty years standing Why does he find it so difficult to focus on his grief for his son Burton feels his pious raffish and mercurial wife gave him his life in Italy and his career as the foremost journalist on Italian affairs But surely she ia also the person who has made life impossible for him Was their son somehow a victim of their explosive love and hate Or is that thought simply the expression of a deep paranoia The Life and Work of Dennis
