

Cardiologists call for Mandatory ECG RATES

Cardiologists are calling for mandatory ECG rates to be implemented for all patients with a heart condition.

The American Heart Association (AHA) has issued a statement calling for mandatory ECG rates for all patients with a heart condition. The AHA states that ECG rates are a critical component of cardiac care and that mandatory ECG rates would ensure that all patients receive the best possible care. The AHA also states that mandatory ECG rates would help to reduce the risk of heart-related complications and improve patient outcomes.
