Cardosos Brazil A Land For Sale:

Cardoso's Brazil James F. Petras, Henry Veltmeyer, 2003 Petras and Veltmeyer argue that Cardoso paved the way for what amounted to the takeover of a large and important part of Brazil's economy by foreign investors. The authors discuss the neoliberal model of capitalist development, the privatization of key sectors and enterprises, the human cost of structural adjustment, and the search for a community-based form of local development.

Poverty and Inequality in Middle Income Countries Einar Braathen, Julian May, Marianne Ulriksen, Gemma C. Wright, 2016-04-15 This collection offers a timely reassessment of viable ways of addressing poverty across the globe today. The profile of global poverty has changed dramatically over the past decade and around three quarters of the poor now live in middle income countries, making inequality a major issue. This requires us to fundamentally rethink anti-poverty strategies and policies as many aspects of the established framework for poverty reduction are no longer effective. Featuring contributions from Latin America, Africa, and Asia, this much-needed collection answers some of the key questions arising as development policy confronts the challenges of poverty and inequality on the global, national, and local scale in both urban and rural contexts. Providing poverty researchers and practitioners with valuable new tools to address new forms of poverty in the right way, Poverty and Inequality in Middle Income Countries shows how a radical switch from aid to redistribution-based social policies is needed to combat new forms of global poverty.

A Different Light Parvati Nair, 2011 This is the first full critical study of the work of the popular documentary photographer Sebastião Salgado. Nair explores all the stages of Salgado's work, including the recent more ecological subjects, showing its planetary commitments.

Latin America Juan Manuel Pérez, 2004 This is a general bibliography on Latin America covering a wide variety of subjects from pre-Columbian civilizations to Columbus to Castro to the foreign debt to pollution, etc. This work will not only be of use to the general casual reader on Latin America but also to the more specialized researcher. The book contains over 800 topics with over 8,000 titles identified.

System in Crisis James Petras, Henry Veltmeyer, 2003-12 Mounting hostility to the hegemony of the United States, tumbling stock markets, environmental destruction, sluggish economic growth, unprecedented income inequality, and growing poverty—something fundamental is wrong, argue Petras and Veltmeyer. They assert that globalization is a mere euphemism for capitalism in its current global imperialist projection. They show how resistance to capitalist globalization is being organized among very diverse social sectors, from rural peasants to the middle class in wealthy countries of the North. They conclude their analysis by assessing the possibilities for unifying the diverse forces of opposition to neoliberalism capitalism and imperialism and the prospects for an alternative socialist form of development
