Career Girls ; Louise Mensch,2004 English Filming, English Writing Jefferson Hunter,2010-04-05 Jefferson Hunter examines English films and television dramas as they relate to English culture in the 20th century He traces themes such as the influence of U S crime drama on English film and film adaptations of literary works as they appear in screen work from the 1930s to the present A Canterbury Tale and the documentary Listen to Britain are analyzed in the context of village pageants and other wartime explorations of Englishness at risk English crime dramas are set against the writings of George Orwell while a famous line from Noel Coward leads to a discussion of music and image in works like Brief Encounter and Look Back in Anger Screen adaptation is also broached in analyses of the 1985 BBC version of Dickens s Bleak House and Merchant Ivory s The Remains of the Day

Best Friends Terri Apter,Ruthellen Josselson,2010-02-10 Best Friends provides the missing link to understanding and recognizing the impact of some of the most important relationships in girls and women s lives Every woman remembers the sting of betrayal of a girlfriend and every parent of a daughter has seen her come home from school in tears because a girl she thought was her best friend suddenly and inexplicably became her enemy While boys hash out differences with fists and kicks girls societies are marked by secrets and whispers and shifting affection The lessons learned as an adolescent girl are often carried into adulthood making women fear confrontation especially with other women But the intensity of the struggles reflects the support and healing to be found within these friendships Girls find themselves in the mirror of other girls hence the power each has to influence the other Ruthellen Josselson and Terri Apter s many years of working with hundreds of girls and women have given them insight into the emotionally important relationships that are integral to a girl s self image Best Friends explores the bonds of friendship between girls and between women and the sorrows and joys they experience together from early adolescence and throughout their lives

Reel Views 2 James Berardinelli,2005 Thoroughly revised and updated for 2005 Includes a new chapter on the best special edition DVDs and a new chapter on finding hidden easter egg features

All Or Nothing Edward Trostle Jones,2004 This critical study of Mike Leigh s cinema is a comprehensive assessment of his thirty plus years in film including his television features from the first feature length Bleak Moments to All or Nothing Through his own species of tragicomedy and favored thematic content concentrating on relationships Leigh enlarges the emotional boundaries of cinema for performers and audience alike His deep and fully realized characters often subvert both decorum and irony traditionally associated with British film and television Leigh s sense of the reciprocity and interpenetration of the material mundane the ridiculous and the humanistic sublime brings respect for the complexity of the ordinary and merits celebration within the democratic and demotic art of film
