Love is a Care-Taker From a Christian Perspective DALVIN PRYCE,2023-08-10

Love is a Care Taker Love is a care Taker author DALVIN PRYCE offers illuminating and straightforward talk to help guide people through today s biggest challenges of loving people well Our life should be marked by loving well by this all men should know that we are Christ s disciples when we have love for one another Being hospitable and walking in his grace we should be known for loving well Let s put love into practice Here s a great example a woman was left alone with her two children after the death of her husband She was evicted from her home because of her insurmountable debt Shortly after the property was auctioned off she attended the auction to see who would end up owning the property when the auction was closed the woman burst into tears at her loss however as she turned in the keys the buyer gave them back to her she said to her I was an orphaned child and I come from a humble family She says God has given me the means and I want to give back some of the many things God has given me she told this crying woman you owed me nothing the house is yours the woman was great full for the rest of her life for this loving action That s a testimony of loving well isn t it God wants us to be out among the people of the cities being used by him The Lord wants us to be hospitable in other words we must shine with the love of Christ even if we are struggling Jesus wants us to have a welcoming hospitable heart Jesus lives for others He prayed for them He identified with the need of people their needs and suffering were His own If Jesus has given us so much why not give back to Him some of what we have Let s do something for those in need even if it means depriving ourselves of somethings Life without love makes no sense Wholeness in Hope Care Daniel Johannes Louw,2015 Throughout his life the apartheid activist Nelson Mandela Madiba maintained In the darkest moment there is always hope We must never give up Hope as a mode of the courage to be Paul Tillich points to what the Sociologist Peter Berger calls signals of transcendence Wholeness in Hope Care explores the rich tradition of hope in wisdom philosophy and Christian theology It connects non hope un hope Gabriel Marcel inespoir to a theology of compassion in soul care cura animarum Resurrection hope theologia resurrectionis points to the healing of life cura vitae and the preservation of land cura terrae In order to describe the helping and healing dimension in pastoral caregiving the term promissiotherapy has been coined Daniel Johannes Louw was Dean of the faculty of theology at the University of Stellenbosch 2001 2005 President of the International Academy of Practical Theology IAPT 2003 2005 and President of the International Council for Pastoral Care and Counselling ICPPC 2011 2015 Series Pastoral Care and Spiritual Healing Series Pastoral Care and Spiritual Healing Vol 3 Subject Pastoral Studies Religious Studies Christianity Perspectives ,1994 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001

Polyphonic God Israel Oluwole Olofinjana,David Wise,Usha Reifsnider,2025-07-31 In Polyphonic God theologians and practitioners together contend that intercultural churches are significant in multicultural British society and serve to create a counter cultural kingdom narrative demonstrating how we can find unity in the midst of diversity and how this can enrich the lives of everybody involved Faith Seeking Action Gregory P. Leffel,2007-06-01 In Faith Seeking Action author Gregory Leffel links a description of the church as a global movement with a description of contemporary social movements that are actively challenging today's societies such as the environmental global justice and identity movements. Not surprisingly, Christian communities and communities of social activists share much in common as they each work to enrich their societies. It is natural then to ask what missionally concerned Christians may learn from social movements about the public role of their churches, the connection of their beliefs to social change and the mobilization of their people. It can also be asked how these often divided communities may find ways to collaborate around common actions rooted in such shared values as peace, justice, life and the integrity of the environment. Building on growing interest in the field of missiology and its missional church concept, Leffel has created a dialog between the church as a social actor and social movements. Along with introducing movement theory to mission studies, Leffel introduces a new way of addressing the issues involved in the church's engagement with society, a concept he calls missio ecclesiology. Of interest to those seeking vital ways to live out their faith in the world, missiologists, missional church leaders and street level workers alike, this work fuels fresh thinking about the church's role in cultural and social change.

The International Bible Commentary William Reuben Farmer, 1998. Initiated by international scholars as a Catholic and ecumenical academic and pastoral enterprise, The International Bible Commentary brings together many voices, Catholic and ecumenical, speaking from different cultural perspectives to God's Word. 1

Metaphor, Canon, and Community Ralph Bisschops, James Francis, 1999. Every religion interprets its metaphors according to a specific model. Such differences tend to be largely determined by dogmatic principles underlying a specific religion. This volume contains a selection of the papers originally delivered at the 25th LAUD symposium on Metaphor and Religion. It presents the unusual attempt of gathering viewpoints from the three great religions within monotheism: Judaism, Christianity and Islam, and it includes contributions from renowned authors such as Rabbi Lawrence A. Hoffman, Anna Wierzbicka and Mehmet Aydin. The volume covers a wide range of theological subjects from mysticism to pastoral care. It also contains case studies illustrating the methodology used by today's scholars of metaphor in the field. The volume poses important challenges to mainstream metaphorology. It presents a significant range of discoveries, instances and new interpretative models. The book, however, not only addresses theorists of metaphor but all students, scholars and religious leaders engaged in cross-religious studies or ecumenical dialogue.

Ecclesiology in Context J. A. van der Ven, 1996. This important volume for students of ecclesiology, professors, ministers and church staff members applies theological and social scientific approaches to the development of practical models and strategies for the church's interaction with modern society.

Perspectives on Science and Christian Faith, 1991. Toward a New Heaven and a New Earth Fernando F. Segovia, 2003. This celebration of the brilliant work of Elisabeth Schussler Fiorenza begins with an in-depth interview conducted by Fernando Segovia in which Professor Schussler Fiorenza reminisces about her life from her childhood during the Second World War through university studies and her developing awareness of the need for theological contributions to be made by women. Book jacket.
