Caring For Your Historic House:

Caring for Your Historic House Heritage Preservation,1998-10 A house is considered historic if it is typical of its period usually more that 50 years old and significant in either design materials workmanship setting and or association This work provides advice on the ongoing care and maintenance of such properties and in the preservation of the qualities which make such homes unique

Caring for Your Old House Judith L. Kitchen,1991-04 Gives advice to old house owners on rehabilitation and restoration

Preventive Conservation for Historic House Museums Jane Merritt,Julie A. Reilly,2010-01-16 Preventive Conservation for Historic House Museums is a primer on the preventive care practices that these unique sites need to slow the rate of deterioration and prevent damage and wear to the property and its collections It proposes a collaborative approach to preservation planning that is based on interdisciplinary research critical thinking and observation rather than rote maintenance schedules and everyday residential cleaning practices The authors recommend that sites have documents and plans in place that direct the intellectual and physical control of the collections and site The intellectual controls include administrative and management policies and procedures the physical controls include security and safety precautions routine maintenance and cleaning practices among others Historic house administrators staff board members and volunteers will find this volume indispensable Professionals who deal with historic sites from the museum administrator or curator to architect to engineer as well as students pursuing studies in the field of preservation and conservation will also find this a valuable reference This volume promotes a pro active approach to preservation planning for historic sites and their collections

Old-House Journal ,1999-03 Old House Journal is the original magazine devoted to restoring and preserving old houses For more than 35 years our mission has been to help old house owners repair restore update and decorate buildings of every age and architectural style Each issue explores hands on restoration techniques practical architectural guidelines historical overviews and homeowner stories all in a trusted authoritative voice
