Ricketts, 1978 Fighting, Loving, Teaching Emily A. Daniels, 2013-02-11 Despite challenges and continuing inequalities surrounding urban education there are instances which provide a counter narrative to the dominant discourses of failure Urban educators who engage conscious caring and armed love in their practice are an example of this This qualitative instrumental case study examines the practices of two transformative urban educators around caring and armed love in their classroom praxis This study examines their conceptions and practice of these approaches through interview field notes and video data The findings involve manifestations of both caring and armed love including connection nurturance through food community directness relationships honesty respect and demand as well as high expectations Despite the challenges that surrounded this school the atmosphere of caring and armed love acted like a protective barrier or space of safety for the students My conclusion points to the vital significance of re humanizing our educational discourse in favor of the genuine care and connections that exist in urban settings and the importance of re centering our discussion to focus on the human aspects of education which lie at the core of our profession Firmly anchored in a critical educational tradition of struggle Fighting Loving Teaching reawakens teachers to educational justice and the everyday possibilities of a pedagogy of the heart With uncompromising passion and commitment this timely book weaves a narrative of critical persistence and radical hope in an effort to reinsert the revolutionary power of love into current discourses of democratic schooling and society Antonia Darder Leavey Endowed Chair of Ethics and Moral Leadership Loyola Marymount University Los Angeles Author of Reinventing Paulo Freire A Pedagogy of Love Caring, Sharing, and Getting Along Mary Dell Johnson,1993-01-01 This book is one in the Children s Activity Series of books to promote awareness about health family life and cultural diversity for children in kindergarten through third grade The books in this series are written to enhance an established curriculum rather than to serve as the curriculum itself They offer ideas for hands on activities for teachers to integrate into the primary level curriculum Each activity begins with a statement of the purpose of the activity and a brief description of the activity in a nutshell Other activity sections outline any advance preparation needed to conduct the activity identify items for student use detail the steps for the process of the activity list new words used in the activity and explain how to integrate lessons into language arts social studies and other areas of the primary curriculum Reproducible masters for student activity sheets and teacher patterns are included for each activity This book in the series uses the activity format to provide a framework for teaching important social skills to young children It focuses on seven important social skills the need for rules authority individual rights and respect for others personal space cooperation property following directions and responsibility NB Engineering and Contracting Halbert Powers Gillette,1926 *In re Carlson's Estate.
