Carlotta Corpron Designer With Light:

Carlotta Corpron, Designer with Light Carlotta Corpron, Martha A. Sandweiss, 1980 Light as Experience and Imagination from Medieval to Modern Times David S. Herrstrom, 2022-11-21 In Light as Experience and Imagination from Medieval to Modern Times David S. Herrstrom synthesizes and interprets the experience of light as revealed in a wide range of art and literature from medieval to modern times. The true subject of the book is making sense of the individual's relationship with light rather than the investigation of light's essential nature while telling the story of light seducing individuals from the Middle Ages to our modern times. Consequently it is not concerned with the progress of scientific inquiries into the physical properties and behavior of light optical science but rather with subjective reactions as reflected in art architecture and literature. Instead of its evolution this book celebrates the complexity of our relation to light's character. No individual experience of light being truer than any other.

An American Collection Amon Carter Museum of Western Art, Patricia A. Junker, 2001 Amon G. Carter 1879-1955 is one of the legendary men of Texas history. Born in a log cabin he was self-made becoming Fort Worth's leading citizen and champion. He developed an interest in the art of Frederic Remington and Charles M. Russell through his friendship with Will Rogers. Carter's will provided for the establishment of a museum in Fort Worth devoted to the art of the American West. While the museum holds the most significant collection anywhere of works by Remington and Russell and is a pioneer in the field of western studies it has evolved into one of the great museums of American art as a whole focusing on artists working on successive frontiers aesthetic as well as geographic. Its photography collection alone has grown to nearly one quarter of a million objects. The museum designed by noted architect Philip Johnson opened to the public in 1961. On the occasion of its fortieth anniversary a substantially expanded building also designed by Mr. Johnson was inaugurated. This volume relates the museum's history and presents color and duotone illustrations of 125 of its masterworks dating from 1822 to 1998: paintings, sculpture, prints, watercolors, pastels, drawings, and photographs with an essay about each and a biography of each artist. It includes a number of landmark works recently added to the collection and unveiled here for the first time: paintings by John Singer Sargent, Stuart Davis, and Marsden Hartley; sculpture by Alexander Calder and Louise Nevelson; a daguerreotype by Southworth and Hawes; and photographs by Alfred Stieglitz, David Smith, Robert Adams, and Linda Connor.
