Carlyle And The Burden Of History:

Carlyle and the Burden of History John D. Rosenberg, 1985 Rethinking British Romantic History, 1770-1845
Porscha Fermanis, John Regan, 2014 Rethinking British Romantic History 1770 1845 brings together a team of leading scholars to examine the interactions between history and literature in the Romantic period focusing on practical as well as theoretical interconnections between the two genres and disciplines Fabricating History Barton R. Friedman, 2014-07-14
Barton Friedman demonstrates the ways in which English men of letters in the nineteenth century attempted to grasp the dynamics of history and to fashion order however fragile out of its apparent chaos The authors he discusses Blake Scott Hazlitt Carlyle Dickens and Hardy found in the French Revolution an event more compelling as a paradigm of history than their own Glorious Revolution To them the French Revolution seemed universally significant a microcosm in short For these writers maintaining the distinction between history and fiction was less important than making sense of epochal historical events in symbolic terms Their works on the French Revolution and the Napoleonic Wars occupy the boundary between history and fiction and Fabricating History advances the current lively discussion of that boundary At the same time this work explores questions about narrative strategies as they are shaped by or shape events Narratives incorporate the ideological and metaphysical preconceptions that the authors bring with them to their writing This is not to argue Professor Friedman says that historical narratives are only about the mind manufacturing them or more narrowly yet about themselves as mere linguistic constructs They illumine both the time and place they seek to re create and if by indirection the time and place of the mind thinking them into being Originally published in 1988 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Into the Light of Things George J. Leonard, 1995-06-15 When John Cage opened his compositions to chance sounds in the 1950s and Andy Warhol began exhibiting paintings of Brillo boxes in the 1960s the art of the commonplace seemed like something radically even frighteningly new But noting an unprecedented shift around 1800 away from the idealism of Western aesthetics Leonard shows that attacks on the art object as outspoken as any made by twentieth century avant gardists can be found in the works of Wordsworth Ruskin Carlyle Emerson and Whitman From Wordsworth to Cage a certain kind of artist sought to re orient humanity s devotion from the next world to this one to situate paradise in the simple produce of the common day Enough of Science and Art Wordsworth began his first book of poems Come forth into the light of things Two hundred years later John Cage would tell us We open our eyes and ears seeing life each day excellent as it is This realization no longer needs art By studying artists together with poets Leonard uncovers the rich tradition that links Wordsworth to

Cage and illuminates many figures in between Into the Light of Things transforms our understanding of modern culture
Jacket The Prophets of Doom Neema Parvini, 2023-07-27 Linear and progressive views of history have dominated the popular imagination for the past seventy years in a worldview wedded to the inexorable rise of globalisation and GDP growth at any cost However the end of the Cold War failed to produce the end of history as hoped a fact brought home to many by Russia's invasion of Ukraine in 2022 Material wealth and Progress in the name of social justice have not made people happier or more united but quite the opposite Anxiety depression fearfulness sadness loneliness and anger have all massively increased since 1970 with the male suicide rate at an all time high Western society seems to be divided against itself across every line conceivable left versus right women versus men non whites versus whites globalists versus populists the elites versus the people people who think that men can be women and vice versa versus those who insist that they cannot and so on Seventy three percent of Americans believe their country is on the wrong track with similar views reflected in Britain and across Europe The Prophets of Doom explores eleven thinkers who not only dared to contradict the dominant linear and progressive view of history but also predicted many of the political and social maladies through which we are living

Victorian Environments Grace Moore, Michelle J. Smith, 2018-03-07 This collection will draw attention to new ideas in both Victorian studies and in the emerging area of literature and the environment Adopting a broad interpretation of the term environment the work aims to draw together new approaches to Victorian texts and cultures that conceptualise and are influenced by environments ranging from rural to urban British to Antipodean and from the terrestrial to the aquatic With the pressures of industrialism and the clustering of workers in urban centres the Victorians were acutely aware that their environment was changing Torn between nostalgia for a countryside that was in jeopardy and exhilaration at the rapidity with which their surroundings altered the literature and culture produced by the Victorians reflects a world undergoing radical change Colonization and assisted emigration schemes expanded the scope of the environment still further pushing the boundaries of the home on an unprecedented scale and introducing strange new worlds These untamed physical environments enabled new freedoms but also posed challenges that invited attempts to control taxonomize and harness the natural world Victorian Environments draws together leading and emerging international scholars for an examination of how various kinds of environments were constructed redefined and transformed in British and colonial texts and cultures with particular attention to the relationship between Australia and Britain Carlyle's Theory of the Hero: Its Sources, Development, History, and Influence on Carlyle's Work Benjamin Harrison Lehman, 1928 The English Idea of History from Coleridge to Collingwood Christopher Parker, 2000 Despite the widely remarked indifference to philosophy of history that has characterized most British historians important things were said from the early 19th century to the mid 20th about historical knowledge and the nature of human history This is a study of this distinctively English Idealist tradition It connects Coleridge and Carlyle whose writings have been the focus predominantly of literary scholarship to thinkers who have been the subjects of philosophers rather than historians interest John Stuart Mill F H Bradley and R G Collingwood It also draws parallels between Idealist thinking about history and postmodernism Carlyle's Life of John Sterling Robert Keith Miller,1987 Victorians Institute Journal ,1988 The Filson Club History Quarterly Otto A.
