Carnation The First 75 Years 1899 1974:

Carnation John Downing Weaver,1974 Forest Grove Lisa Amato,Mary Jo Morelli,2010 Forest Grove one of the first settlements in the Oregon Territory owes its name to its many varieties of trees The first Euro American settlers arrived in West Tualatin Plains in 1841 and were soon joined by other missionaries including those fleeing the tragedy of the 1847 Whitman Massacre Anticipating the inevitable emigrant migration the missionaries hoped to teach the Native Americans about farming and religion The rich soil and plentiful creeks made the area perfect for growing crops and the abundant forests would provide a future lumber industry Without any academic prospects however the area would not appeal to families Two remarkable men Rev Harvey Clark and Rev George Atkinson and a feisty lovable old woman named Tabitha Brown were determined to establish a school Thanks to their combined efforts an orphanage that began in a log cabin would grow into the prestigious institution of higher learning that exists today Pacific University Extractives, Manufacturing, and Services David O. Whitten,1997-04-22 The second volume in the Handbook of American Business History series this book offers concise histories of extractive manufacturing and service industries as well as extensive bibliographic essays pointing to the leading sources on each industry and bibliographic checklists Supplementing other bibliographic materials in business history this volume provides researchers with a much needed path through the vast array of material available in the library and on the Internet Indicating which resources to check and which to bypass the book is a guide to a sometimes overwhelming amount of information Each of the book s chapters provides a concise industry history beginning with the industry s rise to importance in the U S and continuing to the present The bibliographic essays provide a narrative outline of the leading sources published or made available in archives libraries or museum collections since 1971 when Lovett s American Economic and Business History Information Sources was published Each discussion concludes with a bibliographic checklist of the titles mentioned in the essay as well as other titles In a rapidly expanding information society researchers teachers and students may be easily overwhelmed by the exhaustive material available in print and electronically What is useful and what can be ignored is a strategic question and few know where to begin This book provides a guide Mothers and Medicine Rima D. Apple,1987-12-16 In the nineteenth century infants were commonly breast fed by the middle of the twentieth century women typically bottle fed their babies on the advice of their doctors In this book Rima D Apple discloses and analyzes the complex interactions of science medicine economics and culture that underlie this dramatic shift in infant care practices and women s lives As infant feeding became the keystone of the emerging specialty of pediatrics in the twentieth century the manufacture of infant food became a lucrative industry More and more mothers reported difficulty in nursing their babies While physicians were establishing themselves and the scientific experts and the infant food industry was hawking the scientific bases of their products women embraced scientific motherhood believing that science could shape child care practices The commercialization and medicalization of infant care established an environment that made bottle feeding not only less feared by many mothers but indeed natural and necessary Focusing on the history of infant feeding this book clarifies the major elements involved in the complex and sometimes contradictory interaction between women and the medical profession revealing much about the changing roles of mothers and physicians in American society The strength of Apple s book is her ability to indicate how the mutual interests of mothers doctors and manufacturers led to the transformation of infant feeding Historians of science will be impressed with the way she probes the connections between the medical profession and the manufacturers and with her ability to demonstrate how medical theories were translated into medical practice Janet Golden Isis Don't Kill Your Baby Jacqueline H. Wolf,2001 An outstanding contribution to the history of medicine and gender Don t Kill Your Baby should be on the bookshelves of historians and health professionals as well as anyone interested in the way in which medical practice can be shaped by external forces Margaret Marsh Rutgers University How did breastfeeding once accepted as the essence of motherhood and essential to the well being of infants come to be viewed with distaste and mistrust Why did mothers come to choose artificial food over human milk despite the health risks In this history of infant feeding Jacqueline H Wolf focuses on turn of the century Chicago as a microcosm of the urbanizing United States She explores how economic pressures class conflict and changing views of medicine marriage efficiency self control and nature prompted increasing numbers of women and eventually doctors to doubt the efficacy and propriety of breastfeeding Examining the interactions among women dairies and health care providers Wolf uncovers the origins of contemporary attitudes toward and myths about breastfeeding Jacqueline H Wolf is assistant professor in the history of medicine Department of Social Medicine Ohio University College of Osteopathic Medicine and adjunct assistant professor Women s Studies Program Ohio University Nutrition for a Better Life Peter Brabeck-Letmathe,2016-11-10 In Nutrition for a Better Life one of the food industry s leading experts takes a factual look into the past and future of food and nutrition Former Nestl CEO Peter Brabeck Letmathe shows that while in the past forty years convenience was the selling point for many industrially produced foods consumers have now come to demand specifically healthy products Going forward it is health that will drive innovation in the industry Using cutting edge technology and scientifically based nutrition standards the food industry will play a decisive role in improving the wellbeing of entire population groups offering effective and cost saving personalized diets that will both prevent and administer to the acute and chronic diseases of the twenty first century Kitchen Literacy Ann Vileisis,2008-02 Ask children where food comes from and they ll probably answer the supermarket Ask most adults and their replies may not be much different Where our foods are raised and what happens to them between farm and supermarket shelf have become mysteries How did we become so disconnected from the sources of our breads beef cheeses cereal apples and countless other foods that nourish us every day Ann Vileisis s answer is a sensory rich journey through the history of making dinner Kitchen Literacy takes us from an eighteenth century garden to today s sleek supermarket aisles and eventually to farmer s markets that are now enjoying a resurgence Vileisis chronicles profound changes in how American cooks have considered their foods over two centuries and delivers a powerful statement what we don't know could hurt us As the distance between farm and table grew we went from knowing particular places and specific stories behind our foods origins to instead relying on advertisers claims The woman who raised plucked and cooked her own chicken knew its entire life history while today most of us have no idea whether hormones were fed to our poultry Industrialized eating is undeniably convenient but it has also created health and environmental problems including food borne pathogens toxic pesticides and pollution from factory farms Though the hidden costs of modern meals can be high Vileisis shows that greater understanding can lead consumers to healthier and more sustainable choices Revealing how knowledge of our food has been lost and how it might now be regained Kitchen Literacy promises to make us think differently about what we eat

The Wagner Collection of Business and Corporate History, Formed Thru 1986, 1987 George Burns and Gracie Allen Cynthia Clements, Sandra Weber, 1996-08-23 In the minds of today's audiences George Burns was a solo act But in the history of show business he will long be remembered for his work with Gracie Allen Few performers have enjoyed so much popular and critical acclaim Together they enjoyed phenomenal success in vaudeville radio television and film Although they were celebrities the two performers enjoyed a life remarkably free of scandal After the death of Allen in 1964 Burns made commercials a music video and an exercise video He wrote books and won numerous awards and his nightclub and convention appearances did not stop until shortly before his death Through a thoughtful biography and detailed entries this book serves as a comprehensive reference to the careers of Burns and Allen together and individually The biography summarizes their rise as vaudeville performers their work in a range of media and Burns continued achievements after Allen's death Sections of the book cover their work on the stage on radio on television and in films Each section provides detailed entries for their performances including cast and credit information plot synopses and review excerpts Appendices list their awards personal appearances and archives and an extensive annotated bibliography cites and discusses sources of additional information

Geahigan, 1988 No descriptive material is available for this title "How Shall I Feed My Baby?" Rima Dombrow Apple, 1981 L'Entraide généalogique, 1989 Horticultural Abstracts, 1976 The Minister's Manual

James W. Cox, 1998-07-29 This religious anthology will nourish the pastor's heart, soul, and mind. It's a treasure for devotional reflection as well as a support for the task at hand. James W. Crawford, pastor, Old South Church, Boston. Under the editorial guidance of Professor Cox, whose sensitivity to parish needs is incomparable, The Ministers Manual has achieved a long-standing reputation for its wide variety of quality material for pulpit and worship use. Donald Macleod, Francis L. Patton, professor emeritus, Princeton Theological Seminary. The Ministers Manual is the single most comprehensive resource for preaching and worship available, filled with completely new material for 1999. Unlike other preaching annuals that simply outline sermons, The Ministers Manual provides complete sermons for the entire calendar year. This nondenominational guide offers you both topical and lectionary sermons and supplements these with two alternative sermon outlines for every Sunday. You can engage the minds of your youngest parishioners by drawing from the fifty-two children's sermons and stories, and there are thoughtful sermon illustrations and messages for seasonal celebrations. In addition, The Ministers Manual will help you prepare sermons and prayers for such occasions as communion, funeral services, and Memorial Day. Along with all this, The Ministers Manual gives you additional features not found in other preaching manuals. It provides three valuable worship aids with every sermon, useful for expanding your Sunday service. You can also enrich your preaching by drawing from the more than one hundred thought-provoking quotations and questions on life and religion. Further, this expansive reference offers topics to ponder at small group discussions and resources for evangelism and world missions. And the seven indexes put all of this valuable information at your fingertips. The Ministers Manual is truly unequalled in Year Book, United Church of Christ, 1975. The Value Line Investment Survey, 1980.
