Family Literacy Experiences Jennifer Rowsell, 2006

Family Literacy Experiences explores the power of the home school connection. It shows teachers how to make the world outside the classroom an integral part of effective classroom instruction. In the past educators have responded to the compelling research that links a strong home literacy environment and student achievement by trying to change what students do at home. This book takes a different approach it explores innovative ways teachers can incorporate home and out of school experiences in reading and writing instruction.
