African Art In Transit:

African Art in Transit Christopher B. Steiner, 1994-01-27 African Art in Transit is an absorbing account of the commodification and circulation of African art objects in the international art market Christopher Steiner's analysis of the role of the African middleman in linking those who produce and supply works of art in Africa with those who buy and collect so called primitive art in Europe and America is based on extensive field research among the art traders in Cote d'Ivoire Steiner provides a lucid interpretation which reveals not only a complex economic network with its own internal logic and rules but also an elaborate process of transcultural valuation and exchange By focusing directly on the intermediaries in the African art trade he unveils a critical new perspective on how symbolic codes and economic values are mediated in the context of shifting geographic and cultural domains He questions conventional definitions of authenticity in African art by demonstrating how the categories authentic and traditional are continually redefined African Art in Transit Christopher Burghard Steiner, 1994-01 African Art in Transit is an absorbing account of the commodification and circulation of African art objects in the international art market Christopher Steiner's analysis of the role of the African middleman in linking those who produce and supply works of art in Africa with those who buy and collect so called primitive art in Europe and America is based on extensive field research among the art traders in Cote d'Ivoire Steiner provides a lucid interpretation which reveals not only a complex economic network with its own internal logic and rules but also an elaborate process of transcultural valuation and exchange By focusing directly on the intermediaries in the African art trade he unveils a critical new perspective on how symbolic codes and economic values are mediated in the context of shifting geographic and cultural domains He questions conventional definitions of authenticity in African art by demonstrating how the categories authentic and traditional are continually redefined African Art in Transit Christopher Burghard Steiner, 1994 African Art and the Colonial Encounter Sidney Littlefield Kasfir, 2007-10-24 Focusing on the theme of warriorhood Sidney Littlefield Kasfir weaves a complex history of how colonial influence forever changed artistic practice objects and their meaning Looking at two widely diverse cultures the Idoma in Nigeria and the Samburu in Kenya Kasfir makes a bold statement about the links between colonialism the Europeans image of Africans Africans changing self representation and the impact of global trade on cultural artifacts and the making of art This intriguing history of the interaction between peoples aesthetics morals artistic objects and practices and the global trade in African art challenges current ideas about artistic production and representation Constructing African Art Histories for the Lagoons of Cote d'Ivoire Monica Blackmun Visonà, 2017-07-05 Constructing African Art Histories for the Lagoons of Cote d'Ivoire is an investigation of the methods employed by art historians who study creative production in Africa While providing insights into the rich visual arts of the Lagoon Peoples of southeastern Cote d'Ivoire this study is one of the few attempts by an Africanist to situate local and regional artistic practices in the context of the global art market and to trace the varied receptions an African art work is given as it leaves a local context
