The Black Art Renaissance Joshua I. Cohen, 2020-07-21 Reading African art's impact on modernism as an international phenomenon The Black Art Renaissance tracks a series of twentieth century engagements with canonical African sculpture by European African American and sub Saharan African artists and theorists Notwithstanding its occurrence during the benighted colonial period the Paris avant garde discovery of African sculpture known then as art nègre or black art eventually came to affect nascent Afro modernisms whose artists and critics commandeered visual and rhetorical uses of the same sculptural canon and the same term Within this trajectory black art evolved as a framework for asserting control over appropriative practices introduced by Europeans and it helped forge alliances by redefining concepts of humanism race and civilization From the Fauves and Picasso to the Harlem Renaissance and from the work of South African artist Ernest Mancoba to the imagery of Negritude and the cole de Dakar African sculpture's influence proved transcontinental in scope and significance Through this extensively researched study Joshua I Cohen argues that art history's alleged centers and margins must be conceived as interconnected and mutually informing The Black Art Renaissance reveals just how much modern art has owed to African art on a global scale African Art in the Barnes Foundation Christa Clarke, 2015-06-16 The first publication of the Barnes Foundation's important and extensive African art collection The Barnes Foundation is renowned for its astonishing collection of Postimpressionist and early Modern art assembled by Albert C Barnes a Philadelphia pharmaceutical entrepreneur Less known is the pioneering collection of African sculpture that Barnes acquired between 1922 and 1924 mainly from Paul Guillaume the Paris based dealer The Barnes Foundation was one of the first permanent installations in the United States to present objects from Africa as fine art Indeed the African collection is central to understanding Barnes's socially progressive vision for his foundation This comprehensive volume showcases all 123 objects including reliquary figures masks and utensils most of which originated in France's African colonies Mali Cote d'Ivoire Gabon and the Congo as well as in Sierra Leone Republic of Benin and Nigeria Christa Clarke considers the significance of the collection and Barnes's role in the Harlem Renaissance and in fostering broader appreciation of African art in the twentieth century In depth catalog entries by noted scholars in the field complete the volume African Sculpture Warren M. Robbins, 2005 Introduces the vast range of tribal sculpture from Senegal to the Congo regions and Mali to Sierra Leone Explores the expressive quality and sheer evocative power of African art and helps one gain a better understanding of one of the great heritages of mankind African Art Pierre Meauzé, 1968-12 African Art Frank Willett, 1971

Bassani, Michael Bockemühl, Patrick R. McNaughton, 2002 Many elements converge in the construction of a high quality art collection making it a fascinating intellectual and emotional adventure a journey of discovery and a labour of love Formed over the course of thirty years by Udo Horstmann and his wife the Horstmann collection is rather exceptional inasmuch as it offers a captivating vision of the variety of solutions adopted by black artists over the course of the centuries nearly 120 extraordinary sculptures figures masks household objects and weapons from Guinea Bissau Mali Burkina Faso Cote d'Ivoire Ghana Togo Nigeria Cameroon Gabon Congo Angola Zambia Zimbabwe South Africa Swaziland Mozambique Kenya and Sudan The origin of the artworks selected for their perfection transcending the mere utilitarian function touches all of the lands of the continent including the southern and eastern lands rarely so authoritatively represented in other collections and their execution covers an arc of time of several millennia The presence of ancient works contributes to the demolition of the preconception that has weighed unfairly until recent years on African art and that is the absence of evolution in the artistic creation of Black Africa and therefore of any historic quality This is a difficult negation to cancel if African sculpture is still often labeled as primitive Another meritorious quality of the Horstmanns lies in the fact that they chose the sculptures in their collection not out of any generic passion for the exotic and neither for any abstract demand for representativity of ethnicity or significance or destination but for their quality for the enchantment of the form or better of the forms Paging through the book the reader will discover that the artistic creation that is the need to give form to the formless is a common heritage of mankind shared by the artists of Black Africa

Genesis Alisa LaGamma, 2002 The seventy five masterpieces presented here drawn from public and private American collections are among the most celebrated icons of African art works that are superb artistic creations as well as expressions of a society's most profound conceptions about its beginnings All are reproduced in color and are accompanied by entries that illuminate the distinctive cultural contexts that inspired their creation and informed their appreciation
