African Experiences Of Cinema:

African Experiences of Cinema Mbye B. Cham, Ishaq Imruh Bakari, 1996-10-01 No Marketing Blurb Symbolic Narratives/African Cinema June Givanni, 2019-07-25 In the conference Africa and the History of Cinematic Ideas held in London in 1995 film makers cultural theorists and critics gathered to debate a range of issues Views were exchanged on such topics as imperialism and the problems of distribution African Experiences of Cinema Ishaq Imruh Bakari, Mbye B. Cham, 1996-10 No Marketing Blurb African Cinema: Manifesto and Practice for Cultural Decolonization Michael T. Martin, Gaston Jean-Marie Kaboré, 2023-08-08 Challenging established views and assumptions about traditions and practices of filmmaking in the African diaspora this three volume set offers readers a researched critique on black film Volume Two of this landmark series on African cinema is devoted to the decolonizing mediation of the Pan African Film Television Festival of Ouagadougou FESPACO the most important inclusive and consequential cinematic convocation of its kind in the world Since its creation in 1969 FESPACO s mission is in principle remarkably unchanged to unapologetically recover chronicle affirm and reconstitute the representation of the African continent and its global diasporas of people thereby enunciating in the cinematic all manner of Pan African identity experience and the futurity of the Black World This volume features historically significant and commissioned essays commentaries conversations dossiers and programmatic statements and manifestos that mark and elaborate the key moments in the evolution of FESPACO over the span of the past five decades Critical Approaches to African Cinema Discourse Nwachukwu Frank Ukadike, 2014-02-27 Critical Approaches to African Cinema Discourse utilizes an interdisciplinary approach to lay bare the diversity and essence of African cinema discourse It is an anthology of historical reflections critical essays and interviews by film critics historians theorists and filmmakers that signifies a dialogue and engagement apropos the ideology and cultural politics of film production in Africa The contributors are extremely concerned not only with the history of African cinema but with its future and its potential This book then is not limited to the expansion of the discourse on African cinema but tries to approach the definition of the critical canon within the exigencies and manifestations of art and African sociopolitical practices The authors view these practices as an investment in a cultural imperative stemming from the quest to delineate how critical methodologies are derived from and shape contemporary historical and cultural practices Hence the contributions are less about the usual constrictive method of analysis and more about illustrating manifestations of an interrogative critical methodology that is certainly an offspring of an indigenous African critical cum cinematic culture and paradigms African Film Studies Boukary Sawadogo, 2022-12-15 African Film Studies is an accessible and engaging introduction to African cinemas showcasing the diverse cinematic expressions across the continent Bringing African cinemas out of the margins and into mainstream film studies the book provides a succinct overview of the history aesthetics and theory of sub Saharan African cinematic productions Updated throughout this new edition includes new chapters on Nollywood Ethiopian cinema Streaming and the rise of televisual series which serve to complement the book's main themes Overview of African cinema's Questions assumptions and defines the characteristics of African cinemas across linguistic geographic and filmic divides History of African cinemas Spans the history of film in Africa from colonial import and appropriation of the gaze the rise of Nollywood and local TV series to streaming as well as building connections with the development of African American cinema Aesthetics Introduces new research on previously under explored aesthetic dimensions such as cinematography animation and film music Theoretical Approaches Addresses a number of theoretical approaches and critical frameworks developed by scholars in the study of African cinemas Traditions and practices in African screen media Features Ethiopian cinema Nollywood Local Televisual Series in Burkina Faso and South Africa and the Streaming rush for Africa All chapters include case studies suggestions for further reading and screening lists to deepen the reader's knowledge with no prior knowledge of African cinemas required Students teachers and general film enthusiasts would all benefit from this accessible and engaging book

Gender Terrains in African Cinema Dominica Dipio, 2019-04-12 Gender Terrains in African Cinema reflects on a body of canonical African filmmakers who address a trajectory of pertinent social issues Dipio analyses gender relations around three categories of female characters the girl child the young woman and the elderly woman and their male counterparts Although gender remains the focal point in this lucid and fascinating text Dipio engages attention in her discussion of African feminism in relation to Western feminism With its broad appeal to African humanities Gender Terrains in African Cinema stands as a unique and radical contribution to the field of African film studies which until now has suffered from a paucity of scholarship

Women in African Cinema Lizelle Bisschoff, Stefanie Van de Peer, 2019-11-14 Women in African Cinema Beyond the Body Politic showcases the very prolific but often marginalised presence of women in African cinema both on the screen and behind the camera This book provides the first in depth and sustained examination of women in African cinema Films by women from different geographical regions are discussed in case studies that are framed by feminist theoretical and historical themes and seen through an anti colonial philosophical political and socio cultural cinematic lens A historical and theoretical introduction provides the context for thematic chapters exploring topics ranging from female identities female friendships women in revolutionary cinema motherhood and daughterhood women's bodies sexuality and spirituality Each chapter serves up a theoretical historical discussion of the chosen theme followed by two in depth case studies that provide contextual and transnational readings of the films as well as outlining production distribution and exhibition contexts This book contributes to the feminist anti racist revision of the canon by placing African women filmmakers squarely at the centre of African film culture Demonstrating the depth and diversity of the feminine or female aesthetic in African cinema this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of African cinema media studies and African studies

Guide to African Cinema Sharon A. Russell, 1998-02-18 Intended as a guide to the filmmakers and films of the African cinema Provides the framework for understanding the history and development of African film with respect to its situation in world cinema

Postcolonial African Cinema David Murphy, Patrick Williams, 2007 Postcolonial African Cinema constitutes a new departure in African film studies Recognizing the maturity of the field and the need for complex yet accessible approaches that move beyond the purely descriptive while refusing to get bogged down in theoretical jargon This is the first introduction of its kind to an important cross section of postcolonial African filmmakers from the 1950s to the present Building on previous critical work in the field this volume brings together ideas from a range of disciplines to combine the in depth analysis of individual films and bodies of work by individual directors Chapters provide an overview of the director's output to date and the necessary background to give a better understanding of the director's choice of subject matter aesthetic or formal strategies and ideological stance

Cinema and Social Discourse in Cameroon Alexie Tcheuyap, 2005 Cinema and Social Discourse in Cameroon analyzes a cinema that has been inaugurating some major thematic and aesthetic innovations for the last twenty years The essays in this volume use film semiotics postcolonial enquiries as well as cultural theories to stimulate alternative innovative and radical analyses that interrogate and disrupt official discourses and preoccupations about national culture They also reveal the diverse and creative voices in Cameroon film deepening our understanding of the language and social discourse of a vibrant national cinema

The Making of a Gendered Nation in Postcolonial West African Video, Film, and Literatures Carmela J. Garritano, 2001

African Francophone Cinema Samba Diop, 2004

This short encyclopedic book is destined to students who are interested in African Francophone Film and Cinema. The major contemporary African Francophone filmmakers and their films are treated here. The book discusses a certain number of themes as they are featured in African Francophone Cinema. The interface between cinematographic language and image is also studied. This study reflects the vibrancy of the emergent field of African cinema. Furthermore, the reading and interpretation of the aforementioned themes is a testimony toward the commitment of African filmmakers who re-visit and update a certain number of topics as well as explore new avenues, thus pushing further and further outward the boundaries of filmmaking in Africa. Thus, many of the films analyzed in this book allow the reader to reflect on some contemporary issues that affect Africans and at the same time these films provide for entertainment, fun, and light humor. Thanks to the availability of these films, the African is at once educated and entertained. Beyond Africa, the themes embedded in African Francophone films help toward a better appreciation and understanding of African Cinema.
