African Laughter:

African Laughter Doris Lessing, 2009-06-30 A highly personal story of the eminent British writer returning to her African roots that is brilliant and captures the contradictions of a young country New York Times Book Review A rich and penetrating portrait of Lessing's homeland African Laughter recounts the visits she made to Zimbabwe in 1982 1988 1989 and 1992 after being exiled from the old Southern Rhodesia for 25 years for her opposition to the minority white government Lessing uses memory and reminiscence with recent experience to depict a country in the process of change Migratory Settings, 2015-06-29 Migratory Settings proposes a shift in perspective from migration as movement from place to place to migration as installing movement within place Migration not only takes place between places but also has its effects on place in place In brief we suggest a view on migration in which place is neither reified nor transcended but thickened as it becomes the setting of the variegated memories imaginations dreams fantasies nightmares anticipations and idealizations of both migrants and native inhabitants that experiences of migration bring into contact with each other Migration makes place overdetermined turning it into the mise en scene of different histories Hence movement does not lead to placelessness but to the intensification and overdetermination of place its heterotopicality At the same time place does not unequivocally authenticate or validate knowledge but shot through with the transnational and the transcultural exceeds it ceaselessly Our contributions take us to the migratory settings of a fictional exhibition a staged political wedding a walking tour in a museum African appropriations of Shakespeare and Sophocles Gollwitz Germany Calais France the body after a heart transplant refugees family portraiture a garden in Vermont the womb With contributions by Mieke Bal Maaïke Bleeker Paulina Aroch Astrid van Weyenberg Sarah de Mul Annette Seidel Arpacı Sudeep Dasgupta Wim Staat Maria Boletsı Griselda Pollock Alex Rotas and Murat Aydemir Zimbabwean Transitions Mbongeni Z. Malaba, Geoffrey V. Davis, 2007 This collection of essays on Zimbabwean literature brings together studies of both Rhodesian and Zimbabwean literature spanning different languages and genres It charts the at times painful process of the evolution of Rhodesian Zimbabwean identities that was shaped by pre colonial colonial and post colonial realities The hybrid nature of the society emerges as different writers endeavour to make sense of their world Two essays focus on the literature of the white settler The first distils the essence of white settlers alienation from the Africa they purport to civilize revealing the delusional fixations of the racist mindset that permeates the discourse of the white man's burden in imperial narratives The second takes up the theme of alienation found in settler discourse showing how the collapse of the white supremacists dream when southern African countries gained independence left many settlers caught up in a profound identity crisis Four essays are devoted to Ndebele writing They focus on the praise poetry composed for kings Mzilikazi and Lobengula the preponderance of historical themes in Ndebele literature the dilemma that lies at the heart of the modern Ndebele identity and the fossilized views on gender roles found in the works of leading Ndebele novelists both female and male The essays on English language writing chart the predominantly negative view of women found in the fiction of Stanley Nyamfukudza assess the destabilization of masculine identities in post colonial Zimbabwe evaluate the complex vision of life and reality in Charles Mungoshi s short stories as exemplified in the tragic isolation of many of his protagonists and explore Dambudzo Marechera s obsession with isolated threatened individuals in his hitherto generally neglected dramas The development of Shona writing is surveyed in two articles the first traces its development from its origins as a colonial educational tool to the more critical works of the post 1980 independence phase the second turns the spotlight on written drama from 1968 when plays seemed divorced from the everyday realities of people s lives to more recent work which engages with corruption and the perversion of the moral order The volume also includes an illuminating interview with Irene Staunton the former publisher of Baobab Books and now of Weaver Press

African Literature and Its Times Joyce Moss, Lorraine Valestuk, 2000 This volume focuses on major fiction poetry and non fiction from Africa Organized by title it discusses 50 works through detailed essays

Life Writing and the End of Empire Emma Parker, 2024-03-21 The first comparative study of white life writers who migrated to Britain from colonies and former colonies after the Second World War examining how their autobiographical writings address the legacies of empire

Colonial Memory Sarah De Mul, 2011 Sarah De Mul is a Postdoctoral Fellow of the Research Foundation Flanders FWO Vlaanderen in the Department of Literary Studies at the University of Leuven Her publications and research interests are in the field of comparative postcolonial studies with a particular focus on gender memory and empire in Neerlandophone and Anglophone literature
