

54 DAYS OF PRAYER FOR AFRICA 26 SEPT - 18 NOV

A Prayer initiative by the South African Christian Leadership Initiative (SACLI), toward the healing of Africa from the wounds caused by slavery, colonialism, exploitation and racism.

We invite Africa and the nations of the world to pray with us from 26 September to 18 November 2022.

“Finally, brothers and sisters, rejoice! Strive for full restoration, encourage one another, be of one mind, live in peace. And the God of love and peace will be with you.”
2 Corinthians 13:11 (NIV)

African Prayers

Peter Baudena, John B. Gichuhi

African Prayers:

Prayer in the Religious Traditions of Africa Aylward Shorter, 1975 An African Prayer Book Desmond Tutu, 2009-03-25 The great Archbishop of Capetown South Africa shares with us the simple but profound secrets of his extraordinary spiritual strength by unveiling his very own book of prayer Prayer our conversation with God needs no set formulas or flowery phrases It often needs no words at all But for most believers the words of others can be a wonderful aid to devotion especially when these words come front faithful fellow pilgrims The African Prayer Book is just such an aid for in this collection all the spiritual riches of the vast and varied continent of Africa are bravely set forth Here we may delight in Solomon s splendid encounter with the Queen of Sheba overhear the simple prayer of a penniless Bushman and glory in the sensuous sonorities of the mysterious liturgies of the Egyptian Copts Here are Jesus own encounters with Africa which provided him refuge at the beginning of his life from the murderous King Herod and aid at its end in the person of Simon of Cyrene who helped Jesus carry his cross Here are the prayers of some of the greatest among the mothers and fathers of the Church Monica Augustine Clement of Alexandria Cyprian of Carthag as well as the prayers from the African diasporas of North America and the Caribbean From thunderous multi invocation litanies to quiet meditations here are prayers that every heart can speak with strength and confidence Archbishop Desmond Tutu who is for millions the very soul of Africa is our guide on this unique spiritual journey His introduction is destined to become a classic his characteristic energy and optimism light our way and the words of his favorite prayers many composed by the Archbishop himself will stay with us forever

Prayer in an African Context Peter Baudena, John B. Gichuhi, 2002 The Prayers of African Religion John S. Mbiti, 1975 African Prayers Robert Van de Weyer, 2002-06 This book is a compilation of prayers and illustrations artwork from various parts of Africa Themes include Days and Years Life and Health Birth and Death Work and Wealth Conflict and Trouble Faith and Trust Goodness and Praise These are prayers stemming from the African culture that reveal the universal nature of our common experience Prayer in the Religious Traditions of Africa Aylward Shorter, 1976

Africa's Social and Religious Quest Randee Ijatuyi-Morphé, 2014-01-30 This well crafted book probes the key dimensions of Africa s existential predicament It constitutes an intellectual response to a gnawing African situation the starting point for grasping Africa s social and religious quest Beyond split explanations of external versus internal factors e g colonization slavery vs leadership cultural values this study accounts more comprehensively for emergent issues shaping this situation The situation reflects a gamut of problems in traditional African religion and material culture which hitherto defines African communality politics and destinies vis vis the cosmos and nature Thus African religion and communities each with its own attendant values do not operate by critical engagement with larger issues of society and civilization especially those shaped by the advent of post modernity Rather they operate via adaptation The communal drive for natural and social harmony inevitably produces a preservationist view of culture leaving things as they are This study takes an integrative approach to religion society and civilization eschews dichotomies and broadly defines and re signifies life and wholeness as a true end of Africans quest today Christian Reflection in Africa Paul Bowers,2018-07-05 This reference collection presents academic reviews of more than twelve hundred contemporary Africa related publications relevant for informed Christian reflection in and about Africa The collection is based on the review journal BookNotes for Africa a specialist resource dedicated to bringing to notice such publications and furnishing them with a one paragraph description and evaluation Now assembled here for the first time is the entire collection of reviews through the first thirty issues of the journal s history The core intention both of the journal and of this compilation is to encourage and to facilitate informed Christian reflection and engagement in Africa through a thoughtful encounter with the published intellectual life of the continent Reviews have been provided by a team of more than one hundred contributors drawn from throughout Africa and overseas The books and other media selected for review represent a broad cross section of interests and issues of personalities and interpretations including the secular as well as the religious The collection will be of special interest to academic scholars theological educators libraries ministry leaders and specialist researchers in Africa and throughout the world but will also engage any reader looking for a convenient resource relating to modern Africa and Christian presence there The Prayers of African Religion John S. Mbiti,1975 RELIGIOUS SYNCRETISM IN AFRICAN CHRISTIANITY ISIAIAH OLUWAJEMIRIYE OLATOYAN,2024-04-18 Christianity among the African people whether on the soil of Africa or in diaspora is perceived and defined differently by different people For instance among African traditional religious people and Muslims Christianity is a foreign religion that must not be allowed to thrive in Africa To several Africans who profess Jesus Christianity is good but it is not adequate and effective enough to handle all human needs Still among some Western Christians and missionaries African Christianity is superficial and lacks total commitment to Christ Of course the Africans are a cultural people with profound religious inclinations Their traditional religion ATR has tremendously shaped their worldviews and socioeconomic and political activities Consequently when traditional Africans are converted to Christianity they do not break ties with their traditional religions completely The examination of relevant biblical texts on syncretism however reveals that God condemns the worship of many gods and places a curse on anyone who offers sacrifices to carved images and bows to them in worship Therefore this work investigates the root cause of religious syncretism among African people In the attempt to find answers to why the average African Christian finds it difficult if not impossible to abandon his her traditional religious belief systems completely to embrace Christianity the author concludes that unless the issues surrounding the African forgotten and secret covenants are exposed and decisively addressed in the light of biblical teaching syncretism will continue to be a stigma on the fabric of African Christianity Therefore to overcome the threats of syncretism in African Christianity there is a need to establish a sound theological and missiological framework that can address the problems associated with the African worldviews and belief systems This task must be carried out under the searchlight of Scriptures Hallelujah for the Day Anthony J. Gittins,2002 Conversations with God James M. Washington,1995-09-29 A unique and moving collection of prayers by African Americans spanning two centuries that has sold more than 30 000 copies and been unanimously embraced as a powerful testament of faith and hope Coretta Scott King Soul Cry Honor Books,2004 African Americans have reason to be proud of their culture and heritage Not only is African American culture rich in tradition and history but past generations persevered under great difficulty This legacy is something worthy to be shared with this generation and those to come a legacy of people whose prayers are heard by God Through the crucible of affliction depth and substance are forged Soul Cry Powerful Prayers from the Spiritual Heritage of African Americans is a collection of powerful prayers of African Americans throughout history whose answers are received even today The prayerful wisdom of generations touches the heart moves the spirit and inspires communication with God Africa Grace L. Chavis Butler,1994 The South African Pioneer ,1902 The Negro from Africa to America Willis Duke Weatherford,1924 Central Africa ,1883 The Word that Lives ,1970* African Saints Frederick Quinn,2002 Modeled to some extent on All Saints this book will also include prayers by various Africans and will bring together the rich history of African people and their spirituality Theology and Identity Kwame Bediako,Kwame Bedieko,1992 This book is all about Jesus The words recorded in it were written about Jesus over 2000 years ago Yet today his message of peace hope love and forgiveness still resonates with people of all races nationalities educational and economic backgrounds Some like what he said while others disagree with what he said But almost everyone finds him intriguing The story of Jesus comes to us from four different authors Matthew Mark Luke and John written over a period of nearly seventy years The message and uniqueness of Jesus remain the same but each author tells the story from his perspective and for his purpose Some writers wrote more others wrote less But what if we could read it as one single story from beginning to end This book does just that by combining the four reports of Jesus's life into a single chronological story Through this book you will take a new look at Jesus his life his miracles and his teachings and be able to come to your own conclusion about him Produced in cooperation with the International Bible Society
