African American Experience In World Mission A Call Beyond Community:

African-American Experience in World Mission Vaughn J. Walston, Robert J. Stevens, 2002 Collection of articles about the history of missions from an African American perspective African-American Experience in World Mission (Revised Study Guide Edition) Vaughn J. Walston, Robert J. Stevens, 2009-06-01 Venture into the world of overseas missions from an African American perspective This collection of articles takes you deep into the history of missions in the African American community You will learn of the struggles to stay connected to the world of missions in spite of great obstacles You will read of unique cultural experiences while traveling abroad You will feel the heart for fulfilling the Great Commission both in the African American community and beyond All text remains the same in this revised edition with the exception of new study guide questions at the close of each chapter The questions can be used to help facilitate discussions in Sunday School Bible study seminary classes conference workshops and other group or individual studies Profiles of African-American Missionaries Robert J. Stevens, Brian Johnson, 2012-06-26 Profiles of African American Missionaries features the lives and ministries of the great African Americans who have gone to the world with the message of Christ It is a collection of stories sharing the ministries of several African American missionary pioneers from the 1700s to the present dealing with all the social and ministry issues that they had to face here and abroad Readers will be inspired by the dedication and commitment of these great African Americans as they lived out God's great commission to go into all the world and make disciples of all people It will inspire and challenge all readers to greater personal involvement in God's worldwide mission Churches on Mission Geoffrey Hartt, Christopher R. Little, John Wang, 2017-09-15 The twenty first century is marked by a renewed emphasis on the missional responsibility of individual Christians and local churches Churches on Mission God's Grace Abounding to the Nations is an attempt to explore the relationship between the local church and its missionary responsibilities Through history theology case studies and actual ministry practices each author in this collection presents an aspect of local church participation The book aims to be informational and inspirational on many levels and invites readers from local churches to become active participants in the mission of God Last Call for the African-American Church Chester Williams, 2014-12-24 Last Call for the African American Church revisits the commandment Jesus left his followers to proclaim the gospel worldwide until his return one that by all accounts is no longer a priority in the contemporary African American church Despite the presence of euphoric praise and worship celebrations and the proliferation of diverse ministries it advertises as cutting edge the implosion of missions has occurred in this church's pulpits and pews Selected biblical foundations of missions are provided for those new to the parlance and for others needing a refresher course Along with conventional missions distinctions Chester Williams logs some concepts in the glossary he himself has constructed for readers and for collegial review They include the feminization of missions rummage sale missions missions without Jesus and window dressing missions For the most part these concepts represent a radical departure from apostolic missions and are viewed as biblical tinkering and convolution most importantly as obstructions to the Great Commission world harvesting

Clio in a Sacred Garb Ogbu Kalu, 2008 Clio is the ancient Muse of History When dressed in a sacred garb the muse performs for religious people and in this case for church historians The essays address the cutting edge of contemporary African church historiography and the process of appropriation of the gospel in the encounter with Christianity The essays contend that culture contacts as in the missionary movement involve configurations of power Thus culture conversion and civilizing mission are power concepts that dominated the relationship between white missionaries and Black Christians even after decolonialization The African context shaped by diverse cultures ecosystems worldviews and poverty explain the changing faces of Christianity Publisher Cover p 4
