African Cultural Development Ogbu Kalu,1978      African Cultural Development Ogbu U. Kalu,1978      Reading in African Humanities Ogbu Uke Kalu,2002      African Theology Ebenezer Yaw Blasu,2020-02-27 There is probably no set of issues of greater importance in the contemporary world than those that are to do with the Earth on which we live and depend. The more alienated we become from it the more we contribute to our own destruction. Christianity's complicity in this destruction is well documented and hotly debated. Africa can ill afford to fall into the same trap that Western Christianity has in this regard. One senses the urgency of these concerns in Blasus African Theology Studies in African Religious Creation Care. Extremely well informed in the field Blasu not only draws on the three major religions in Africa Christianity Islam and African traditional religion but demonstrates familiarity with the most important recent contributions in the field from Western scholarship. With its emphasis on pedagogics African Theology will play a seminal role in the construction of curricula for an African Christian theology of the environment and is sure to be an essential contribution to all libraries in institutions of higher learning.

African Psychology Augustine Nwoye,2022 One of the most unprecedented developments in the history of the scientific study of psychology in postcolonial Africa is the recent welcome inclusion of the study of African psychology within the psychology degree curriculum of some foreword thinking African universities. In each of those universities such as the University of KwaZulu Natal in South Africa and Kenyatta University in Nairobi Kenya East Africa there now exists a gradual entrenchment of the African derived psychology in the curricular provisions of their psychology degree programmes. With particular reference to the University of KwaZulu Natal in South Africa for instance a number of African psychology based modules have recently been developed approved and incorporated into the list of modules for psychology degree students at the undergraduate Honours and the Master's degree levels see University of KwaZulu Natal College of Humanities Handbook 2018.

African Christian Theologies and the Impact of the Reformation Heinrich Bedford-Strohm,Tharcisse Gatwa,Traugott Jähnichen,Elisée Musemakweli,2017 One of the strongest heritages of the Reformation for Christianity was to return to the central role given to the Bible translated in local dialects. Christianity expanded thanks to the translation of the Bible in vernacular languages worldwide. Most importantly the people who had been victims of prejudices of race supremacy could now have access to God in their own language culture and idioms without intermediaries. It is largely thanks to Bible translations that the majority of those churches in Africa born of European mission activities continued to develop positively after the end of the colonial age and that independent African churches emerged.
