Ayisi,1992 A Theory of African Constitutionalism Berihun Adugna Gebeye,2021-07-08 A Theory of African Constitutionalism asks and seeks to answer why we need a new theoretical framework for African constitutionalism and how this could offer us better theoretical and practical tools with which to understand improve and assess African constitutionalism on its own terms By locating constitutional studies in Africa within the experiences interactions and contestations of power and governance beginning in precolonial times the book presents the development and transformation of African constitutional systems across time and place along with the attendant constitutional designs and practices ranging from the nature and operation of the African state to its vertical and horizontal government structures to its constitutional rights regime This title offers both a theoretically and comparatively rich historically and contextually informed and temporally and spatially extensive account of the nature travails and incremental successes of African constitutionalism with detailed case studies from Nigeria Ethiopia and South Africa A Theory of African Constitutionalism provides scholars policymakers governments and constitution builders in Africa and beyond with new insights for reimagining the purpose substance and scope of constitutions and constitutionalism African Traditional Oral Literature and Visual Cultures as Pedagogical Tools in Diverse Classroom Contexts Lewis Asimeng-Boahene,Michael Baffoe,2018-06-15 This book explores how African oral literature and visual cultures enrich education highlighting the overlooked value of Traditional Indigenous Knowledge Systems TIKS It challenges colonial narratives broadens epistemology and calls for global research to foster inclusive knowledge African Rhythm and African Sensibility John Miller Chernoff,1976 Regulating and Combating Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing Nkechikwu Azinge-Egbiri,2021-03-01 This book analytically reviews the impact of the global anti money laundering and counter terrorist financing AML CFT framework on the compliance trajectory of a number of jurisdictions to this framework The work begins by examining the international financial sector reform and its evolution to inculcate the global framework for AML CFT regulations It challenges the resulting uniform AML CFT due to its paradoxical impact on the compliance trajectory of African countries and emerging economies ACs EEs This is done through an examination of the pre conditions for effective regulation and compliance drivers for ACs EEs that reveals the behavioural impact of the AML CFT standards on the bloc of countries Through the application of agency theory it explores the relationship between ACs EEs on the one hand and the international financial institutions that formulate disseminate and facilitate compliance with the global framework for AML CFT standards on the other The remaining chapters review empirically the compliance pressures and resulting compliance trajectory of ACs EEs with the AML CFT standards The final part of the book provides a detailed explanation of the compliance challenges of ACs EEs and the legitimacy concerns that facilitate this This book offers a new direction on the impact of global AML CFT standards on ACs EEs and contributes to the understanding of the conditions under which the global standards are likely to facilitate proactive compliance within these blocs of countries As such it will be a valuable resource for academics researchers and policy makers working in this area African History Daniel Richard Smith,1993

Africa in Contemporary Perspective Manuh, Takyiwaa,Sutherland-Addy, Esi,2014-05-08 An important feature of Ghanaian tertiary education is the foundational African Studies Programme which was initiated in the early 1960s Unfortunately hardly any readers exist which bring together a body of knowledge on the themes issues and debates which inform and animate research and teaching in African Studies particularly on the African continent This becomes even more important when we consider the need for knowledge on Africa that is not Eurocentric or sensationalised but driven from internal understandings of life and prospects in Africa Dominant representations and perceptions of Africa usually depict a continent in crisis Rather than buying into external representations of Africa with its lacks and aspirations for Western modernities we insist that African scholars in particular should be in the forefront of promoting understanding of the pluri lingual overlapping and dense reality of life and developments on the continent to produce relevant and usable knowledge Continuing and renewed interest in Africa s resources including the land mass economy minerals visual arts and performance cultures as well as bio medical knowledge and products by old and new geopolitical players obliges African scholars to transcend disciplinary boundaries and to work with each other to advance knowledge and uses of those resources in the interests of Africa s people

Indigenous African Institutions George B. N. Ayittey,1991 George Ayittey s Indigenous African Institutions presents a detailed and convincing picture of pre colonial and post colonial Africa its cultures traditions and indigenous institutions including participatory democracy Contrasting traditional African society with both colonial rule and the currently prevalent one man military dictatorship Ayittey concludes that while colonialism was pernicious and brutal it did not totally destroy native African institutions and in some ways even contributed to their survival and regeneration The modern dictatorships under African elites he argues are equally pernicious and brutal and perhaps even more bent on the wholesale destruction of African institutions squandering human resources and diverting foreign aid funds to their own Swiss bank accounts Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint The Traditional African Concept of God and the Christian Concept of God Peter Chiehiura Uzor,2004 This book is motivated by the positive view of the non Christian religions expressed by the Fathers of the Vatican Council II cf NA 2a a revolutionary view considered from the official teaching of the tradition of the Church up till then and much more in such a central issue as the belief in God This book aims at initiating a healthy interaction between the Christian understanding of God and the understanding of God in the traditional religion of the Igbo people of West Africa In approaching this task this special study pursues some major aims In the first place it engages itself in the clarification of some basic issues Are the religious experiences which are phenomenologically found in all religions including the Igbo religion only mere human fabrications or do they originate from a revelation of God Secondly this publication working with the innovative analysis of the theophoral personal names provides some profound factual information about the concrete contents of the Igbo religion on God Thirdly the author tries to find out whether there could be a basic agreement between the understanding of God in Igbo religion and the biblical revelation In this work the fundamental agreement is found in the conviction that God in traditional Igbo religion Chukwu and the God of the Bible is the God of life The purpose of this book therefore is to bring back the question of God to the centre of existential Christian life it is to make the theme of God the motivation and criterion for the whole Christian life and spirituality both individually and communally The theme of the God of life introduces God into life and connects the problems and questions of men and women of today to the theme of God Freedomways ,1971 ABBWA Journal ,1989 Kemet and Other Ancient African Civilizations ,1991 A bibliography of Black Kemet DIGEST OF RULINGS AND DECISIONS OF THE BISHOPS OF THE AFRICAN METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH FROM 1847 to 1907 Edward W.
